

God is ALL in All

About This Publication

This PDF is a complete reproduction of the “I Am that I AM” Hub from the God is ALL in All website. Founded upon the Perennial Philosophy and the Universal Principles of Esoteric Wisdom, this study explores the Omnipresent Divine as the Eternal Source of All Existence and the Indwelling Divine Spirit as the foundation of individual Consciousness. Through an examination of the relationship between the Macrocosm and the Microcosm, the Immortal Soul, and the Awakening of the Divine “I AM” Consciousness, these teachings illuminate the journey from intellectual recognition of the Absolute to the Conscious Realization and Expression of the Divine Presence within. At its heart lies the fundamental Principle that the One Infinite Reality is both the Source of Creation and the Eternal Presence expressing through All Life.

This is a Philosophical and Spiritual endeavor to extract, Harmonize, and synthesize the Universal Truths underlying the world's Diverse Religious, Mystical, and Philosophical traditions. Most famously associated with the concept of Perennial Philosophy, it posits that All Major Traditions share a single, transcendent metaphysical Source and Core Set of Truths.

"By the Power of Truth, I, while Living, have Conquered the Universe."

"I Am Nothing, yet I Am Everything."

Welcome to the foundation. Before the architecture of the Mind can be understood, and before the Immutable Laws of the Universe can be Consciously applied, we must first establish the Origin of All Existence.

This archive is the House of Wisdom, the culmination of nearly three decades of dedicated academic study and silent Knowingness—a deliberate synthesis of the Universal Truths that weave through the world's Hermetics, Theosophy, Philosophy, Religion, Symbolism, and Esoteric traditions brought together, not to erase their differences, but to invite careful study of the deeper questions they all address, the Connectedness of All Things. We do not approach these mechanics as mere dogma, but as the functional, logical Reality of the Cosmos.

The central thesis of this work is that beneath humanity's many Religious, Mystical, and Philosophical traditions lies a Single Transcendent Source that has been described in different languages throughout history. Throughout this website, Historical Context is presented alongside Esoteric Interpretation. Historical Context Seeks to Understand what a text meant within its original time and culture. Esoteric Interpretation explores the Symbolic and Spiritual significance that Seekers have found within those same texts across the centuries. Both perspectives are valuable. One Illuminates the Letter; the other Seeks the Spirit.

At the Absolute Center of this Perennial Philosophy lies a singular, foundational revelation: God is the ALL-in-All.

"God Alone Exists

God Alone is Reality"

I Am that I AM

The foundational texts detailed within this point of focus explore the Highest Realization of Esoteric Philosophy: the Awakening of the Indwelling Divine Spirit. The following sections chart the transformative journey from Recognizing the Absolute as the Omnipresent Macrocosm, to discovering the Immortal Soul within the Microcosm, and embodying the Awakened "I AM" Consciousness as an Active, Living Reality within. "I AM" is the most Powerful Acknowledgment and release of the Power of Creation in the Universe. When an individual says, Thinks, or Feels these two words, they are actively using the Creative Attribute of the Godhead and announcing Creation at their particular point in the Universe.

I. The Omnipresent Divine (The Macrocosm)

The Presence: A foundational meditation on the Absolute as the singular, Omnipresent Reality. This text establishes the profound Esoteric Truth that all fear, discord, and material illusions are dissolved by Consciously Anchoring the Mind in the Perfect Harmony, Wisdom, and Unconditioned Love of the Indwelling Divine Spirit.

The Voice of God: A Profound Revelation of the Creator's True Desire for Active Goodness, Spiritual Harmonization, and the Elevation of Mankind, rather than futile sacrifices or empty ritualistic worship.

God Speaks to Man: A poetic meditation Affirming the Omnipresent Voice of the Divine speaking through nature, Life Experiences, and the Silence of the Soul. It encourages the Seeker to Be Still and Recognize the Ultimate Reality of God in every moment.

II. The Indwelling Spark (The Microcosm)

The Spirit of God: An Esoteric exposition detailing the Omnipresent "Mighty I AM" Consciousness. It reveals the Spirit as the Eternal, Animating Life Force and the Divine thread upon which All Creation is strung, perfectly bridging the Macrocosmic Power of the Absolute with the Microcosmic Soul of the Seeker.

The Song of the Soul: A poetic narrative written from the perspective of the Immortal, Eternal Soul Seeking Conscious Recognition from the mortal self. It emphasizes the Soul as an Indestructible Essence that guides the earthly senses and longs for Union with the Divine Spirit.

III. The Awakened "I AM" Consciousness (Realization)

I Am That: A profound, poetic exposition on the Ultimate Nature of the Divine Spark. This text systematically strips away the illusions of the material body, exoteric religion, and temporal duality, revealing the "I AM" as the Pure, Boundless State of Absolute Existence, Absolute Knowledge, and Absolute Bliss.

I Am Life: A practical manifesto of the Awakened "I AM" Consciousness in Action. This text beautifully describes the Lived Experience of the Seeker who has transcended fear and human discord, Anchoring their Mind Entirely in the Undisturbed Peace, Unconditioned Love, and Eternal Rhythm of the Absolute.

I AM a Monad — The Conscious Realization of the Indwelling Divine Presence: A profound contemplation of the Monad as an Eternal Divine Spark of the Infinite ALL, expressing through the material world while remaining forever united with its Divine Source. Through the awakening of the Mighty I AM Presence, the soul consciously recognizes its true nature as Existence Absolute, Knowledge Absolute, and Bliss Absolute, radiating Divine Love, Peace, and Harmony.

Ramtha — The White Book: A Powerful philosophical discourse affirming that the Essence of the human being is Pure Thought, Light, and Energy. The Individual is presented as the Identifiable God, the Exact Duplicate of the Father, possessing the Unlimited Freedom to dream any Thought and Manifest it Directly into Reality.

Three Magic Words: A profound metaphysical guide exploring the Unlimited Power of the Universal Subconscious Mind. It reveals how we bind ourselves with hidden negative "Prompters" and provides the exact Mental techniques needed to break the lock, building step-by-step to a staggering climax that Unlocks the Ultimate Secret of Human Existence.

The Presence

The Singular Reality of the Divine Spirit

God is the only Presence and the only Power. God is the only real Presence—all the rest is but shadow. God is perfect Good, and God is the Cause only of perfect Good. God never sends sickness, trouble, accident, temptation, nor death itself; nor does He authorize these things. We bring them upon ourselves by our own wrong Thinking. God, Good, can Cause only Good. The same fountain cannot send forth both sweet and bitter water.

I Am Divine Spirit. I Am the child of God. In God I Live and Move and Have my Being; so, I have no fear. I Am surrounded by the Peace of God and All is Well. I Am not afraid of people; I Am not afraid of things; I Am not afraid of circumstances; I Am not afraid of myself; for God is Within Me. The Peace of God fills my Soul, and I have no fear. I dwell in the Presence of God, and no fear can touch me. I Am not afraid of the past; I Am not afraid of the present; I Am not afraid for the future; for God is Within Me. The Eternal God is my Dwelling Place and underneath are the Everlasting arms. Nothing can ever touch me but the direct action of God Himself, and God is Love.

God is Life; I understand that and I express it. God is Truth; I understand that and I express it. God is Divine Love; I understand that and I express it. I send out Thoughts of Love and Peace and Healing to the Whole Universe: to all trees and plants and growing things, to all beasts and birds and fishes, and to every man, woman and child on earth without any distinction. If anyone has ever injured me or done me any kind of harm, I fully and freely forgive them now, and the thing is done with forever. I loose them and let them go. I Am Free and they are Free. If there is any burden of resentment in me I cast it upon the Christ Within, and I go Free.

God is Infinite Wisdom, and that Wisdom is Mine. That Wisdom leads and Guides Me; so I shall not make mistakes. Christ In Me is a Lamp unto my feet. God is Infinite Life, and that Life is my supply; so I shall want for nothing. God Created Me and He sustains me. Divine Love has foreseen Everything, and provided for Everything. One Mind, One Power, One Principle. One God, One Law, One Element. Closer is He than breathing, nearer than hands and feet. I Am Divine Spirit, the Child of God, and in the Presence of God I Dwell Forever. I thank God for His Infinite Divine Love, Perfect Peace and Heavenly Harmony.

The Voice of God

(Revised Version of the Original)

The Voice of God came out of the Heavens unto His servants even before the days of Wunis, but in these days it has come to certain of His Devoted Ones who heard it within the cavern of visions. Afterwards, each wrote it down according to his own hearing, and lo, when they came together it was seen that each had recorded the same words. Thus, the things which were heard by the three and set down by them in writing, all being agreed alike are things recorded forever.

"I AM the Voice of God Who is the God of All Men and Ruler of their Hearts. I have many aspects and come differently to all men; I AM the God of Many Faces. To you, My servants, I give these words, that they may be carried to all men. Obey My commands and I will be Your God. I will enlighten and instruct you, guiding you along the way. I desire your Love and loyalty, and your adherence to My plans, but I do not desire your servility. I am not only your God but your Commander as well, and so I expect obedience and discipline, as befits those who prepare for harsh and grim battles such as those which lie ahead".

"My desire is for Love rather than futile sacrifices of burnt offerings, but it should not be a passive Love but one expressing service in My Cause. A certain knowledge of right and wrong, with free choice of the former, is of greater value in My sight than pointless ritualistic worship. I derive no pleasure from the wasteful shedding of blood from bulls and lambs. I gain nothing from the fat of sheep and the flesh of goats. I AM the Creator of All, so what can men give that would increase My greatness? Men are misled if they believe that their sins can be purged by vain rituals. Only active goodness can obliterate the stain of sin".

"Men approach Me in fear, they come to me with servility. They beg forgiveness for their sins and request My help in worldly matters. To sing My praises is their excuse for coming into places made sacred unto Me, but they come wanting something, be it only reassurance. With this attitude towards Me, do you wonder that I remain mute before their pleas? Bring Me no more vain offerings of flesh and blood, for such wastefulness of Life is an offense to the God of Life. What benefit do I derive from all your feasts or festivals? Give me dedication and effort, that is all I ask. Above all be true to yourselves, for I abhor the face of hypocrisy, the face now all too familiar when men approach Me".

"Men bring Me meat and wine, fine flour and wheaten cakes, thinking I can consume these, or that I have need of such sustenance. I would be far better served were these to be given to the widow and orphan, to the multitudinous poor whom you suffer to exist in your midst. Poverty is man-made and it is not sufficient for the wealthy to give alms to the poor; those with power and position, with wealth and plenty must strike at the roots of poverty. If they fail to do this, then the alms they give have no merit in My sight".

"Your solemn assemblies, your tedious processions, your long faces and melancholy expressions bring no gladness to My heart. Your burdensome ceremonials and futile offerings of Life and food benefit Me in no way at all. Men themselves may derive benefit from these, but their hypocrisy when they proclaim they do this in My name is not hidden from Me".

"The reek of your incense smoke rises and disappears into the air, but it comes not unto Me, nor do I have need of it. Yet I will not deny you the pleasure of its fragrance which can bring inner harmony and peace by soothing the Spirits of men. Nor will I deny you your feasts, if the fetters of wickedness be thereby loosened from your Souls, but do not say they are undertaken for My benefit or glorification. Fasting and the denial of bodily appetites may serve useful ends for men, but though you may deceive yourselves regarding their intent, do not try to deceive Me by mis-stating their purpose. I have no desire to repress the joy and exuberance welling up in the hearts of men, far rather would I prefer that such humanizing emotions be cultivated. Therefore, pray if prayer serves its true purpose, which is to harmonize your Spirit with Mine so communication becomes possible. Keep your festivals and feasts if they serve their purpose, which is to inspire and refine your Spirit. Do all that elevates your Spirit and develops your Souls, that is the true purpose of Life. Do all that is good for you, nothing wholly beneficial is denied you, but do not declare that in so doing you confer benefit upon Me. I AM the God Above and Beyond All".

"I do not deny you your rituals and ceremonials, worship Me if you will as you will, but bear in mind that this cannot substitute for your obligations. Ritual and worship cannot be an adjustment or payment for the things you have failed to do, or be an apology for your own shortcomings. Neither do they compensate for iniquities against your fellowmen. If you attach importance to ritual and ceremonial let it be in a proper proportion, and never let them dull your Conscience against deeds of wickedness, of usury and injustice. Never let your duty and obligations be neglected because you worship Me diligently, following a formalized ritual and ceremonial. Let this not become an excuse for failing to share your bread with the hungry or for neglecting the needs of the destitute or weak. I am not deceived. A Life dedicated to Me is not one preoccupied with worship, that is more the Life of a coward trembling before the unknown. He who dedicates his Life to Me gives shelter to the homeless and succors those in distress, but even these are not the ultimate in goodness, for they are passively accepted. The ultimate in goodness is to actively combat all the root causes of evil. Those who are my true followers live a Life of service and goodness. They live in harmony with their neighbors, harm none and do not shirk the burdens and obligations of earthly existence".

"I am better served by obedience to My laws and conformity with My plans than by ritual and offerings. To listen to the words of the Sacred Writings while striving to understand them is better in My sight than offerings of flesh and treasure which benefit the priests more than they do Me. Among the things which I abhor few are more detestable than the hypocritical offerings of the evildoer. The offerings and worship of a hypocrite are an abomination to Me. Evil enters the realm beyond Earth as a foul smell, and the worse one of all is the smell of hypocrisy. Those who pander to hypocrites or do not actively oppose them are also creatures of evil".

"I know too well the deceit to which men are prone. The adulterer and fornicator preach chastity for others, while the liar declares the virtues of Truth. The thief preaches honesty and the lewd-minded professes modesty. Men say one thing and mean another, while all too often the half or slanted truth replaces the real thing. Men may deceive themselves and other men, but I am not deceived. Now I say, let men first cleanse their own Souls and eradicate hypocrisy before presuming to approach Me. Men may well cry out, "Why does God remain mute, why has He deserted Me? " Do they think their deeds are hidden or that I cannot read the secrets of their hearts?"

"Worship by men of iniquity is mere mockery. How rare the sincere and genuine heart! Were men indeed deserted by their God, they would have none to blame but themselves. Do men think their lack of kindness and consideration for others, their insincerity and inconsistency are truly hidden from Me? I AM the All Knowing One. I see too little Love of goodness in the hearts of men and too much fear for the consequences of their deeds".

"Real and sincere worship is to obey My laws and to shoulder the responsibilities of men, to steadfastly conform to My plan and to live in neighborly harmony. He who devotes his Life to Me also devotes it to his own welfare. He who serves Me well likewise serves himself. This is the Law of Laws. For the whole purpose of Life is not the service of God but the development of the Soul of man. He who worships Me with empty ritual and vain ceremonial but neglects the wellbeing of his own Soul, does not serve Me well, for he thwarts My purpose. I have endowed the creature made in My likeness with a religious instinct, for this springs from its everlasting Spirit, as fire generates heat; therefore, to worship is not unnatural. But blind worship lacks the vitalizing element, it defeats its own end, for in true worship man should reach out beyond himself to discover his own Soul. Then, having done so, he should develop it until the Soul aspires to godhood itself".

"Therefore, dedicate all your labors and the skill of your hands unto Me, and let your heart ever dwell on the borders of the Spiritual. Let the Life which you cherish be the Spirit-Life.

Free yourself from all vain hopes and selfish thoughts; from all worthless encumbrances; from ungainful avarice and unbeneficial lusts; from the domination of the flesh. Life is not easy, nor is it wholly pleasant; it is not meant to be, but bear your burdens with cheerfulness and fortitude. Entrench yourself within an inner fortress of peace".

"Whatever you do or give, do or give in My name, and whatsoever sufferings descend upon you, suffer them for Me. Thus, you will avoid the stigma of false pride and all given and suffered will be without any taint of self-interest".

"The path of godliness is not an easy one to follow, for it is beset with the pitfalls of perplexity and doubt. Then, too, there is not one path but several, and few among men know which is the best. There are many false paths leading nowhere, there are paths that lead to a wilderness of disillusion and some which lead to destruction. Yet among the many beliefs springing up from time to time in various lands, there are always those which lead to the same Truth, to the one Fountainhead of Light, though some may be devious and some wander through dangerous territory. They are like many roads leading pilgrims to the one shrine. Though all true paths are lit by the guiding Light of Truth, not all see it alike; but the fault lies not so much in the Light as in the beholder. It is this which leads to misunderstandings concerning each other's teachings and to disputes between those who prefer one road and those preferring another. Each considers his own way, his own interpretation of the Light to be the best, if not the only, way".

"There are few, even among truly enlightened men, who are able to conceive My true nature, and these know that I am even above unchangeability in manifestation. I can think of Myself as some other and forthwith that other comes into being. There are those among men who declare all Life, all My creation to be an illusion of the senses, a dream without sustenance. They are in error, for all that is real and all that exists was ever latent, awaiting the awakening kiss. Because men cannot know reality as it actually is but only as they can conceive it to be with their deceptive sense, does not make it any less real. If all men were blind, the stars would still exist". "Neither reality nor Truth, nor the God Who is beyond and above both will be inconceivable to the minds of the ultimate man. Only man in his present undeveloped state and in his ignorance cannot conceive such things and therefore, because in his blindness they are beyond his sight, he says they do not exist".

"In the beginning I established the Law, without which the Souls of men could not develop and progress. As each Soul is itself a Divine fragment, with all the powers of Divinity latent within itself, it can modify all but the Great Law. Man thinks but his thoughts alone do not create, for, as yet, he lacks knowledge of the power which creates in substance. First I created the firmament, which is the matrix of all; then when I took thought the creative power flowed outward and, operating upon the medium, brought into being things of substance".

"My creation arose before Me as Light does before a flame or heat before a fire. It came and still comes into being because I exist, it is because I AM. Creation in no way affects Me any more than a man is affected by his shadow, or Light by its reflection. As raindrops, waves, rivers, dew and mist are all forms of water, so is everything existing and knowable by man but various forms of the one substance. This substance has its origin in Me, but it is not Me".

"I AM the source of all things, supporting but not being supported by them. Even as the mighty winds which sweep across the Earth find their rest in the tranquil vastness above, so all beings and all things have their rest in Me. It is a power outflowing from Me which holds all things in stability and form".

"They who devote their lives to My service must do more than Love and worship Me, for such service entails the elevation of mankind, the spreading of good and the combating of evil. They must not only fight against the ungodly, but also overcome the wickedness welling up in their own thoughts. They who Love Me desire the wellbeing of all men, and their Souls are filled with harmony and peace. Dearer to Me than their Love for Me is the labor and tribulations of those who serve Me. I AM their end. I AM never the God of Inertia but the God of Effort; if you offer no more than deeds done in My service or in conformity with My design, then you serve Me adequately".

"However, too rarely do the ways of men conform to My plan and the ranks of those who serve are too thin. Therefore, I shall call forth leaders from among men and send out the clarion cry to service. I shall seek out men who will serve Me diligently and loyally. They will be men of goodwill who are of a friendly nature. They will be kind and compassionate, men who can Love deeply and truly, whose steadfastness is the same in pleasure and affliction; whose resolve remains equally unbroken in the sweet embrace of good fortune as under the harsh blows of misfortune. I will send men who are fair and just, proud and resolute, but these qualities mean nothing unless they also have courage and resolution, fortitude and tenacity".

"I shall seek the man who is himself ever seeking, who seeks to unravel the riddle of Life. One whose determination is strong, who detests wickedness and delights in the good; whose heart and inner vision reach out for Enlightenment. His tranquility will remain unshaken under stress and within his heart will be a haven of peace beyond the reach of excitement and anger. He will be a Lover of Wisdom and Seeker of Truth. He who is wise, he who knows what to do, who remains calm when others lose their self-control; he who is clearheaded under stress, who enjoys the challenge of the task, that man is Mine, He who labors uncomplainingly, who disdains to satisfy deforming lusts, whose Spirit remains the same under the temptations of honors or the pressure of disgrace; he who is free from the shackles of unworthy earthly attachments, who retains his balance under praise or blame, who can shoulder his own burdens, whose Spirit is calm, silent and strong under all circumstances; he who can bear the responsibilities of Life and the obligations of Love, that man is Mine. I AM the God of Inspiration; I AM the God of Love".

"I AM the Knower and you are the known. I AM the Source of Life. In the vastness of My nature, I place the seed of things to be, from which come forth all things that are now or ever will exist".

"Men must nourish their Spirit and sustain it with Spiritual fare. They must also learn that the Spirit is not something separate from man, or something within him. Man is Spirit, man is Soul. There is no need to engage in long-winded empty discussions about far away things lying beyond the reach and understanding of men. To know the reality of the Spirit and to establish the existence of the Soul, man has only to delve within his nature, to seek within himself. The Spiritual part of man is not a mysterious something outside his being, or a thing difficult to understand. To discover it requires no more than the effort of seeking".

"Men with sincere hearts, seeking a path ask for a starting point. However, for most the key is self-discipline, and this is the reason for many laws and restrictions. But these must never be unnecessarily restrictive, each must have a definite purpose and beneficial end, obscure though these may be. The means for overcoming unwholesome desires and for harmonizing with the Divine chord he within the reach of all, but effort must be expended in their cultivation. If the end is great beyond man's conception, it is no less true that the task before man is arduous and difficult in the extreme. To Master himself and gain complete self-control is no more than the first step along the path". "Though men may despair because I AM veiled from them, though they may seek without finding, I am not indifferent to their needs and desires. Doubt and uncertainty are essential earthly conditions serving a definite end. I have not surrounded men with perplexities and obscurities unnecessarily. The climate of unbelief and materialism, strange though it may seem to men, is best for their Spiritual health. I know better than men themselves what is best for them, for I alone can see the broad design spread over the ages, I alone see the end and objective. Though unenlightened men expect it, it is not meet for Me to interfere unduly in the affairs of Earth".

"All things are Mine and under My dominion, but man may deal with them as he will. I do not interfere, but finally man is accountable. Though I have all and nothing can add to My grandeur, with all this I still labor. Therefore, man should never disdain to labor, for this is an attribute of the Highest. I do not require of any man that he do something I would not do, or be something I would not be, I AM the God of Righteousness. If ever I ceased to labor, the Universe would be without order, chaos would prevail and precede its destruction".

"I AM the God of Many Aspects, for men may conceive Me in any form they wish, or even as something without form. I AM the God of Men's Hearts. In whichever way and by whatever name men serve Me, abiding by My laws and conforming with the Great Design, is right in My eyes. Any path which will bring man to his goal is the right road. Truly the paths chosen by men are many and varied, some are even devious, but if they be true paths of Enlightenment and development, they are acceptable in My sight. However, those who lust for earthly power, offering sacrifice and worship to earthly gods conceived to accord with their desires, are not acceptable to Me. It is true that earthly success and power may come to those who strive for them, but do they achieve anything more than fleeting satisfaction? What manner of being would now dominate Earth, had all men been without Divine Enlightenment from the beginning, if earthly ends alone had dominated men's minds? Consider what earthly Life would have been like, had it been left to develop predominated by materialism, if it had not been mitigated by injections of the Divine".

"There are four main types of men who are good and serve Me well. They are those who suffer courageously the afflictions and sorrows which develop the Soul. Those who labor, that Earth and man may benefit. Those who seek after Truth and those with vision and creativity. Yet how rare are those among these who do not besmirch their record with deeds of evil and thoughts of wickedness. All too many may have, by their carnal desires and acts of wickedness, countered their goodness to the detriment of their immortal Souls".

"If a man follow a false god with goodwill and honesty, serving men well and living in accordance with My laws, I will not repudiate him and he will not be denied Enlightenment on the way. There are many roads along which the Soul may travel to bring about its development and awakening to Self-Consciousness, but is it not advantageous to choose the best one? Only the foolish travel blindly, without seeking guidance and directions. Those who have little Wisdom or who are easily misled follow roads which go nowhere. They who follow a barren faith reach a barren destination, they find only an empty place devoid of hope, incapable of fulfilling their dreams and aspirations".

"Those who worship gods of their imagination, gods in strange likenesses, which have been brought into being by man's creative conceptions, will go to these gods who have an existence in a dim shadow realm. Those who worship lower Spirits will go to them and those who worship the demons of darkness will join them, for what a man desires he deserves. There is a link between that which men desire and what becomes established in existence. Provision is made for man to receive the fruits of his own creations".

"Whatsoever you do, whatsoever you plan or create, whatsoever you suffer, let it be an offering unto Me, not for My sake but for yours. I AM the God of Compassion, the God of Understanding. From those who in their devotion offer Me but a single leaf, a flower or fruit, or even a little water, this I will gladly accept, thus lightening their Loving Spirit, for it is offered in sincerity of Heart. He who comes before any god, whatsoever its image, with pureness of heart and good motives, comes unto Me, for I gaze upon him with compassion and understanding. I am not concerned with the deeds alone of men, but with their motives. Empty gestures are ignored, but that which is done with good intent and a loving heart never goes unheeded".

"I AM the Hidden God, hidden to serve an end. Veiled in mystery, I am further obscured by the mists of mortal delusion. Unable to see me, men declare I do not exist, yet I declare to you that man, with his mortal limitations, sees only a minute part of the whole. Man is the slave of illusion and deception. Though man is born to delusion, for it is a needful state, he is further inflicted by deceptions wrought by men. Though man cannot perceive the greatness above him, because of its greatness, neither can he see the smallness beneath him, because of its smallness. From the greatest came the smallest and from the smallest came creation, and within the smallest is greatness and power. For the smallest is far less than the mote, yet it is the upholder of the Universe and it shines like the Sun beyond the darkness. It lies out towards the edge of the reach of man's thought. In the beginning All Things arose from the invisible and into the invisible All Things will disappear in the end, but the end is not the end of the Spirit. Out beyond this material creation born of the invisible, there is a higher eternal invisible of greater substance. When all material things have passed away, this will remain. Above all is timelessness, which is eternity, and there is My abode, the supreme goal of man, and those who attain it dwell in eternity. I AM the Eternal God".

"Few are they who can conceive of Me as I really AM, the Unborn and Uncreated, Beginningless and Without End, Lord of All the Spheres. Those few who can conceive Me as I AM are awakened Spirits freed from mortal delusions. As thick clouds of smoke rise up and spread out from a fire burning in damp wood, so did the material Universe come forth from Me. As a lump of salt dropped into a pool of water dissolves and cannot be removed afterwards, yet from whatever part of the water you draw there is salt, so it is with My pervading Spirit. I AM the Great Luminary, the Everlasting Source of Light Sparks, which, imprisoned in matter, become the slumbering Souls of men. These, unconsciously guided, spread out the five senses under the control of unconscious thought. That which the senses harvest departs with the Spirit. It is borne away by the Spirit, even as perfume is carried by the wind. I AM the Boundless One, The One Beyond Limitations. I remain free and unencumbered by the effort of creation. I AM and I watch Life unfold. I set the course which nature follows to bring forth All that Lives".

"The fools on Earth, who shut their eyes and complain because they stumble, the ignorant who choose to walk in darkness and the apathetic who choose paths of ease and comfort, have no knowledge of Me. Their hopes are sterile. Theirs the choice of darkness, theirs the choice of ignorance, theirs the choice of apathetic inertia. Their learning is futile, their thoughts fruitless and their deeds without purpose. Though man is born in ignorance and darkness, he is also heir to the Guiding Light which dispels them. The Light is his for the taking. Then there are the Awakened Souls among men, their sustenance is My own nature. They know My Spirit is among men as an Everlasting Source of strength and refreshment to the weary and disheartened. They are in harmony with My Spirit and therefore know Me".

"Men call Me the God of Battles, which I am not, for good men fight each other when kings declare war. Men call Me many things, but this does not make Me become what they think I am. I AM the hidden power which ultimately rights all wrongs, which will eventually redress all injustices. I come to all who are worthy, but it is the lonely, the unwanted, the undesirable whom I seek. To Me, the dispirited, the perplexed, the sorrowful and humiliated Soul is an irresistible magnet. I AM the welcoming Light at the end of the road, the companion who watches in compassionate silence, the understanding friend, the ever-ready arm. I AM He Who presides over the haven of Peace within your Heart".

"To those who Unite their Spirit with Mine and to those who are in harmony but not united, I increase that which they have and provide what they lack. I turn a like countenance to All men. My Love for them remains constant, but those who join Me in devotion to My cause are truly in Me and I AM in them. This is My everlasting and unchanging promise unto me: He who walks with Me, serving My cause, shall not perish. So join your Spirit with Mine, giving Me your confidence and trust, and thus united in a harmonious relationship you will come to know the supreme goal. Men say they cannot know Me through their senses, and this is True, for I AM above and beyond the reach of their finite senses. The senses of man are not meant to be the means for experiencing Me, they are for experiencing the material spheres. They are also limiting, shutting out far more man they reveal. Yet men have within them a greater sense which can know Me, but it lies dormant in the mass of men. I AM the Light Within the Heart, the Consciousness of All Living Things. I AM the God of Consciousness, the Listener in the Silences".

"I do not manifest to man through his mortal senses, for these are bounded by earthly limitations. I manifest through the great sense which is of the Spirit, the sense of the Soul. As pure Light hides many colors, so am I hidden in the hearts of men. As sparks fly from a bellows-blown fire, so from the Eternal Fire the Life sparks fly out to glow for an instant in matter and then fall back. As the sun radiates heat, a flower perfume and a lamp light, so does the Heart of man create his own Spiritual state. The eye of man sees a pebble, a star, a sheep or a tree and these do not appear to him in anyway alike. Yet all are differing forms manifesting in the one outflowing Force originating with Me. This outflowing Force generated that which gave birth to substance and endowed it with the matrix for form. The fragments of Divine Spirit interpret that which the Divine Spirit created, but they cannot know it in its reality, for, enshrouded in matter, they sleep. Because the material sphere is a separate part of the greater whole, the mortal part of man can never hope to know in full its boundless beauty, or experience its limitless bliss. Out beyond the limits of man's thought and conception, beyond reach of even the most vivid imagination, the wonder and glory of it all stretch out into absolute perfection. Even at the outer reaches where eternity begins the wonder of the inner glory remains veiled. No words of man can ever hope to describe the True nature of Divine Things, to the Divine alone can the Divine be known. The radiant Living Heart pulsating with Love can never be known to man as man, but when man becomes more than man, he may take his first glimpse behind the veil. I AM the Inspiration and Goal of Man".

"Before creation I was the One Alone. I Thought and the Thought became a command of Power, and into the void of the invisible came that which was the potential of substance, though itself then part of the invisible. Light was born of the Power and My Spirit was in the midst of the Light, but it was not that Light which Lightens the day. A firmament became the foundation of All Things, matter gradually forming there, becoming ever denser as it thrust outward from the invisible. It moved from a subtle state to something more solid, from intangibility to substance, from incoherent substance into a state of density and form. I commanded the subtle substance, with Light but without form, to mate with the subtle substance of darkness and become dense. It did so and became water. Then I spread water over the darkness below the Light, placing a fountain of Light about the waters. This brought forth the Light of mortal vision, which is not the Light of the Spirit, nor the Light of Power. At that time the Universe was made and then Earth received her form. It slept warmly in the midst of the waters, which were not the waters of Earth, and this was before the beginning of Life in earthly substance. I AM the God of Creation".

"At the foundations of My creations are Truth and Reality, these are with Me and of Me, but they are not My substance, neither are they things comprehensible on Earth. These are truly great things indescribable in the inadequate words of men, which can do no more than form an imperfect, incomplete and distorted picture of them; simple things can be described clearly in a few words to the understanding of man, but greater things become increasingly difficult to deal with through mere words. What words of man can be used to describe the indescribable? How can things beyond the comprehension of mortal men be brought within the limits of their understanding? Before the shadow there was the reflecting Light, a Light so bright that were it not veiled in the darkness it would consume the shadow. Seeking to explain and describe transcendental things in the limited language of man only leads to obscurity and confusion, the words form incomprehensible sentences and unthinking men will declare them to be incoherence. Therefore, look behind the sentences strung together with mere words. I AM the Unknown God veiled from man by man's mortal limitations".

"The Universe came into being and exist because I AM. It is My reflection in matter. As a man remains unaffected by the manifestations of his shadow, so do I remain unaffected by the material creation. As heat comes forth from fire and contains its essence and nature, though it is not fire, neither has it the substance of fire, so does My creation relate to Me. I AM as an object reflected in water. The water may not know the reflection or find it within itself, but this inability has no effect on the reality of the object, nor on the fact of its reflection. It is as a man looking into clear water on a calm day sees his reflection therein, but if the wind blows the image becomes distorted, and if the sun hides its face the image disappears. Yet none of these effects touches upon the image itself, nor upon that which casts the image. When the wind drops, the cloud vanishes and the sun reappears, both distortion and deception end, and the reality is again reflected. Within My Creation is My Spirit, which supports it, and this Spirit is the bond between My Creation and Myself. No man acknowledges the air because it is still, but when this same air becomes a whirlwind men give it their whole attention. With Me all is real, while with man all is illusion; but man may abandon his illusions in seeking Me, and he will thereby discover reality. I AM the Realty Behind the Reflection; I AM the Uncaused Cause".

" Those who turn away from the glorious jewel within to seek an outside god, a separate, unresponsive being, are looking for a mere trinket, while disregarding the priceless treasure already in their keeping. Men of Light Worship the vision of Light, men of darkness and ignorance worship ghosts and dark Spirits, demons of the night. There are men who, moved by dark beliefs or their carnal lusts and perverted passions, perform awful austerities and self-mutilations never ordained by Me. They delight in tormenting the Life and Spirit within their bodies. They are truly deluded victims of the darkest form of ignorance. Yet some derive pleasure from their pains and torments, and so continue them, but these may be truly described as mutilated Souls. Some men follow gods who punish wickedness and reward good, and therefore tend towards goodness, but is it not folly to follow nonexistent gods? All men choose their own Spiritual destiny, whether it be done knowingly or not, for under the Law their future state must rest in their own hands. I AM the God Who ordained the Law, and nothing man can do will change it. My Love alone mitigates the consequences of man's unredeemed wickedness. I AM the Changeless One. Could a God of Love become a God of Vengeance? Revenge is something alien to Me. Therefore, is it reasonable that men should believe I could be one thing today and then because they fall into error become something else tomorrow? My nature is not as that of man. I AM as I AM".

"I am not influenced by the mere formal actions of men, or by empty sacrifice. Lighted lamps and candles, days of fasting and self-mortification by man cannot sway Me in his favor. I am not to be bribed, for I AM God. He who handles fire carelessly and gets burnt cannot blame the fire, neither can he who goes into swift waters and drowns blame the waters. There are laws, the violation of which brings retribution in its train. They who by their own deeds bring pain and suffering upon themselves cannot blame Me for what ensues. These are the effects of the lesser laws which are easily understood, but above these is the Great Law which is not so incomprehensible. Under this the link between the deed and its effect is not so apparent; men bring down calamity and suffering upon their own heads and blame Me, when the fault lies with them and the cause is their own misconduct or misconception. Men reap as they sow and I AM the Fertile Field which takes no part in the sowing or the reaping. Man is his own Master and the lord of his own destiny. He cannot expect help from any great power, unless he himself expend effort to contact such power or be deserving of help. Everything a man is or becomes is the result of his own striving and efforts, or his lack of them. I made man to be a man, not a mere puppet or nursling. I AM the God of the Law. I AM the God of the Stalwart".

"Man is the heir to Divinity, and the road to Divinity is Spirituality. Man cannot become Spiritual except through his own efforts and striving. He cannot achieve it by being led by the hand or through fear of punishment, nor by greed through anticipation of a reward. He who enters into his heritage of Divinity will be no weakling; he will have trodden a hard and stony path".

"Man has two ways of knowing Me. He can know Me through his own Spiritual awakening or through the continued revelation of moral law and Divine purpose by My inspired servants. To know Me through a Spiritually Awakened self is the way of certainty, but few can suffer its austerities and disciplines".

"When the Spirit of man is unawakened, he cannot know the great self within him, of which he is a part. Not knowing his true nature and unable to see clearly, he is blinded by material delusions. Would not the creatures of the night, which never see the sun, deem the moon to be the most brilliant Light in the sky above? So, it is with the man walking in the darkness of Spiritual unconsciousness, He says, "I am the body and the body is my whole being", and in the delusion of that belief he becomes ensnared in an existence bound to matter. Like the creatures bound to an existence in the night, which cannot know the glories of things flourishing in the brilliance of daylight, so it is with men bound to the darkness of Spiritual ignorance".

"As a shadow in the night is mistaken for an intruder, or a mirage is mistaken for a pool of clear water, so does the Spiritually immature man mistake the material body for the whole living being. As the shimmering heat haze appears like solid water, so does the outer body appear as the whole being to the Spiritually Unawakened. As, to a man in a moving boat, another boat lying still on the water will often appear to be moving while he himself seems to remain still, so the Unawakened Spirit is deluded by appearances, seeing the mortal body as a whole being. When in fact the clouds are flying overhead, it appears as though the moon itself is speeding across the Heavens, it is only the knowledge and experience we have of the skies above, which tell us this cannot be the truth. Thus it is with the Spiritually unawakened man who, in his ignorance, thinks the mortal body is the whole being, and, having no knowledge or experience of the Spiritual region, is deceived. In fact, all the beliefs of man which hold that the mortal body is the whole being are generated in the darkness of ignorance. A man may be wise in the ways of men, but completely ignorant and unaware of the higher, more glorious things which are revealed in the Light of the Spirit".

"The man held in bondage to delusion says, "If there be another body, a part of me of which I am unaware, it cannot be real, neither can I know it. My eyes are infallible guides, seeing things just as they are, and any feelings I may experience have their origin within my mortal being. I am the child of my body". This man is deluded, like the creatures of the night, or as the man who sees a mirage. Are the eyes which see mirages totally reliable? Motes swimming in the sunbeam are unsubstantial things, yet things such as these are the bricks of man's body, the eyes making them appear solid and substantial, the unreal for the real, his mortal body for his whole self. The deluded man ignores the Spiritual part of his being and its needs. He cherishes the mortal body, gratifying its desires with earthly pleasures. Like the silkworm, he becomes captive in a cocoon of his own making. The man who lavishes undue care on the mortal body displays his own Spiritual ignorance and inadequacy. To be free from existence in the darkness of ignorance, to know the glory of Life in the Light of Spiritual Consciousness, a man must first awaken his Spirit, in this way alone can he become Aware of his True nature".

"Ask yourselves, "What am I? What is real within myself? What comprises the whole man? Can it be that I am truly no more than this fleshy thing, the petty, immature, unstable being balanced between futile unearthly ideals and carnal cruelty and lust? Or am I something greater which is undiscoverable by mortal senses? Am I really akin to something Divine and glorious from which source alone could have come the ideals and virtues which transcend the mundane needs of earthly existence? " Ask yourselves, in the solitudes, and perchance you will not go unanswered. I AM the God of Silences".

"The words of men are inadequate to express just what man really is, the knowledge of his true nature is beyond the understanding of the unawakened Spirit. The inheritance within the grasp of man is without limitation, for it is the Totality of All Things. Man has not been misled in the hope and belief that the seemingly mortal is in fact immortal. The Spirit does not mislead men. They are deceived by their own eyes, they are misled, so they are unable to see things as they are in reality. All that men see and experience throughout earthly existence is veiled in illusion. Man may think his eyes reveal things as they are, but no mortal eye has ever beheld a thing as it actually is. It appears to man through the colored distorting glass of his own mortality. Spiritually, men as a whole are little different from the madman who builds himself a kingdom from the fabric of his imagination. The flowing Life existence about him is seen as a distorted image, a distortion which his own defects have imparted to it. Yet it was meant to be thus, for man is surrounded by the conditions meet for him. It is for man to discover why this is so, and in discovering he will find himself. I AM the Truth; I AM the Reality".

"This earthly Life, which I have given you, should not be viewed in its minute aspect but in the Light of Infinitude. All the suffering and disillusionment, the futility, the forlorn hopes and wasted efforts, the oppressions and injustices are not without a purpose. That purpose is beyond anything man can understand and Infinitely greater than his conception can grasp. The Truly Awakened man, alone among men, can have any insight into Life's end and goal".

"These are Divine Things, yet they can be set down only in the mere words of men and will thus be reduced to things of mortal frailty. Mere words will be read and the pattern formed by them will be far short of Truth and Reality. The taste of a fruit or the fragrance of a flower cannot be known by reading about them. The fruit must be eaten and the flower smelt. Only in Union with Me, Spirit communicating with Spirit, can proof of My Reality be found. Yet, because things are as they are, Truth must ever be veiled from man as man. But who would labor, if laborers were paid whether they worked or not? Were they revealed to him, the ignorant man would not comprehend great things, therefore the Light is not for him. The insincere and shallow seeker after diversion and pleasure will find little entertainment in these words. The really Illuminated man will already Know something of the Truth and will therefore seek it more diligently along a Higher Path. So these words are given just for those sincere seekers who are Aware of their own shortcomings and ignorance. These will be people whose Thoughts are not smothered by prejudice, who are not set in their opinions. For who among men is the most confirmed in his opinions? Who states things in the most assertive manner and talks with the loudest voice? Is it not the most ignorant? I Will Not let the Sincere Seeker go unguided. I AM the Light on the Path".

"Well do I know the hearts of men; they ever seek to deceive themselves. They clearly see the errors and follies of others but are blind to their own. There are those whose idea of righteousness is mumbled words and repetitious prayers. Their Souls are warped with selfish desires and their Heaven is the fulfillment of these. Their prayers are pleas for pleasure or power, for freedom from the things which develop the Spirit. The Lovers of pleasure and power delight in following the path of their own inclinations, they build a Creed of their own desires. They have neither courage nor the will to follow a sterner and True Path. Avoid the companionship of such as these, setting your heart upon the task in hand rather than the reward. I AM the Knower; I AM the Rewarder".

"If a man fixes his attention wholly upon one goal or one thing for his own selfish purpose, as if it were an independent, all unrelated to others, thing, then he moves in darkness of ignorance. If he undertakes a task with a confused mind, not considering the outcome or where it will lead him, or the harm it may do to others or himself, then it is an undertaking of evil. There is a Wisdom which knows when to go and when to stay, when to speak and when to remain silent, what is to be done and what is to be left undone. It knows, too, the limitations set by fear and by courage, what constitutes bondage and what freedom. This is the Wisdom I have placed at the disposal of man, if he would but seek it, the True Wisdom of the Spirit. Opposed to this clear-sighted Wisdom is the false, man-made wisdom obscured by the darkness arising from delusion. Here wrong is Thought to be right and error passes as Truth, things are Thought to be what they are not. The unenlightened men dwelling in comfortable darkness, unperturbed by the challenge of Reality as revealed by the Light of Truth, lack any understanding of true values. That which appears to them to be no more than a cup of sorrow is in fact a chalice filled with the wine of immortality. The vain pleasures that come from pandering to the carnal cravings of the senses appear at first to be a cup of sweetness, but in the end it is found to hold the brew of bitterness. He who does right does it not for Me but for himself; he is the one who benefits, not his God. He who does wrong inflicts himself for it, and he is the sufferer. He who does right does it to his own good and he who works wickedness does it to his own hurt. It could not be possible, in a just Creation, that those whose ways are evil should be dealt with as are those who Live goodly Lives and perform good deeds. The fate of the selfish and that of the unselfish could not be alike. I AM the God of Justice, the Maker of the Law".

"The Spirit of man has the potential for doing All Things, it can even rise above earthly limitations. The Awakened Soul can do whatsoever it Wills. Man makes the environment for his own development; as it is now, so countless wills from the past have fashioned it. When the body awakens in the morning, it is like a man entering his habitation, it becomes a place of Awareness. The Soul becomes active in matter, that with which you hear, taste, smell and feel is the Soul. Physically, the ear of a dead man is still in perfect condition for hearing, but the hearer, the interpreter, has gone. The eyes of a corpse are not blinded, but that which operated them is no longer there".

"So long as the Soul looks outward only, into the deceptive environment of matter and is satisfied with the material pleasures it finds there, and which its baser body finds compatible, it remains cut off from the greater realm of the Spirit. It binds itself to matter, failing to find the greater pleasures always there in the silent depths of its being. Confirmed in his attitude by experiences in a deceptive environment, mortal man becomes convinced that all desirable things lie outside himself. He concludes that satisfaction comes from gaining the things which promote material welfare. This is the folly of the unbalanced man. However, balance is the keyword, for it is equally foolish to turn away from material things altogether. Man is made of earthly things, because it is intended that he should live and express himself on Earth. It is also intended that he should discover his nature through earthly conditions and experiences".

"However, the Divine Spark must kindle the Spirit. It must not be smothered. Balance is the ideal, the whole becoming neither wholly inwardly nor outwardly orientated. Man needs his body and must not repudiate it, and if it requires man's labor to sustain it, then is not man entitled to enjoy its pleasures? Here also it is simply a matter of proper balance. Man lives in a sea of material manifestation where I am only indirectly reflected, as the Soul of man is indirectly reflected in his body. If a man sees with nothing but the eyes of the body, then he cannot perceive Me, for I am beyond his vision. I AM the God veiled Behind Matter; I AM the God of the Spirit".

"Yet there is a vision possible to man, which pierces the Universal veil, a vision free from all obscurity, a vision uncontaminated by the dark shadows of base desires or fear, by unstable emotions or unworthy motives. It is the vision seen when man develops a new faculty, a new sense. It is an inward vision of splendor. A wave of Spiritual Light will engulf him, a mysterious power indescribable in mere words sweeps like a shooting star over the expanse of his Spirit, giving a sudden illuminating flash which floods his whole inner being, his Soul, with a glorious Light. In its brilliance he is granted, for a brief moment in time, a glimpse of the vision splendid. He is then United with the Living Heart of the Universe by a bond reaching out to Infinity. Nothing known to man, no symbols of his conception can express the joyousness which floods his whole being. It can be experienced in quiet tranquility of Spirit. It can burst all the bounds of restraint, expressing itself in an all embracing, overwhelming feeling of Love. Lost in an unfathomable sea of silent contemplation, the body will shine with radiance from the Inner Light, and all about will be bathed in a Luminous Spiritual Glow. Having once been in Divine communication, these awakened Spirits know a Joy Supreme, and never again do they walk through the veil of mortal sorrows. The truly Awakened Soul is beyond carnal lust and mortal grief, his Love is alike for all My creation and thus he shows Supreme Love for Me. By this Love alone he Knows Me in Truth, Who and What I AM, and Knowing Me in Truth he participates in My Whole Being. Those who seek Union with Me must first prepare a dwelling place for Me in their Hearts; but those who are not pure, those who do not fight for Me, those who have not suffered under the discipline of Love and those without Wisdom cannot attain Union, no matter how much they strive. I AM the God of Illumination; I AM the God of Enlightenment".

"Would you know the Ultimate state of man when he has finally reached his goal, when he has entered into his inheritance of Divinity? It is a state of glory transcending anything conceivable by him during an earthbound existence. His Consciousness expands to Embrace Everything, all that ever was or will be. He Sees All. He Knows All. He is in All and he contains All. These things come to him through Infinite Powers of perception, yet he is above all such powers. He is beyond All yet within All. He is beyond the realm of matter, freed from all restrictions, yet he is not denied its joys and may, if he so desires, manifest again in matter. His Thoughts have the Power of Creation. He is one with the Light of Lights, the Light transcending vision. He is the partaker of My Substance, My Son in Eternity, the inheritor of Everlasting Life. I AM your God, the Father of Man".

The Spirit of God

"I AM the Immortality latent in All Things mortal. The Light filling All Things with radiance, the Power holding All Things to their form. I AM the pure, invulnerable stream untouchable by evil, the Supreme fountain-head of Thoughts, the unfailing well of Consciousness, the Light of Eternity. I AM that to which the Soul of man is related. I AM its Power, its Life, its Strength. I AM that to which it responds".

"I AM the sweet coolness in refreshing waters and the comforting warmth in the sun. I AM the calmness of peace in the radiance of the moon and the delicacy in the moonbeam. I AM the sound heard in the stillness, the companionship felt in the solitude and the stirring in the hearts of men. I AM the cheerfulness in the laugh of a youth and the gentleness in the sigh of a maiden. I AM the joy in the Life of All Living Things and the content in the hearts of awakened Souls. I AM the beauty in the beautiful and the fragrance in the fragrant. I AM the sweetness in honey and the scent in perfume. I AM the power in the strong arm and the wistfulness in a smile. I AM the urge in good and moderate desires. I AM the gaiety in gladness, the restlessness in life, the refreshment in sleep. Yet though I AM in all these, I AM not contained in them and they are in me rather than I AM in them. How pitiful are the words of men to depict sublime things! With the Souls of men asleep, enwrapped in clouds of delusion, how can I be known to them?"

"I AM of the Supreme, the Eternal, of God and from God, yet not God. As heat to fire, as fragrance to flowers, as light to a lamp, so AM I to God. I AM the power of God operating in matter. I AM the first created of Creation; I AM the Eternal thread upon which All Creation is strung. I AM the effective Thought of God. I AM that brought forth by His Creating command, wherein All Things share Life. I AM the Lord of forms holding All Things together".

"I AM the Power giving form; I AM the comforting companion of the way. I AM that which gives substance to the hopes and desires of men. Think of me therefore in any way you will. I AM the companionable one, the comforter. I AM the waters of inspiration springing from the Eternal Fount. I AM the glory of Love shining forth from the Central Sun. I AM in All Things".

"I AM the root of the tree of Life, the words written in the Book of God. I AM the guardian of Knowledge, the Wisdom of the Soul. I AM the harmonizer of sound, the controller of Power, the keeper of matter and the sustainer of shapes. I unroll the scroll of time and record its changes. I AM the reader of past and present, the scribe of change, the chooser of chance".

"I AM victory and the struggle for victory, but I AM more, I AM that which defeats defeat, for I AM the victory in defeat. I AM the goodness of those who are good, but I AM more, for I AM the success that arises out of failure. I AM the achievement remaining when all else has gone".

"I AM the sublime veiling secret mysteries. I AM the guardian who jealously discloses hidden things. I AM the Knowledge of the Knower. I AM the seed within the seed from which All Things Spring. I AM the bricks of which All Things are built. I AM more; I AM the clay and water within the bricks. I AM the motion in All Things that move, without me there is no movement. I AM the stability in All Things stable, without me no thing holds to its shape".

"I AM the craftsman with innumerable shapes, the artist with countless colors. My labors are outside the Knowledge of men, my works beyond their sight. My masterpieces will never be seen by mortal eyes".

"That which abides in breath and yet is other than breath, which breath itself cannot know or influence, which controls it from within itself, that AM I. That which is behind the voice, which voice itself cannot know or influence, which controls it from behind itself, that AM I. That which is in the eye yet is other than the eye, which the eye itself cannot know or influence, which controls it from within, that AM I. That which is behind the touch and yet is other than touch, which touch itself cannot know or influence, which manipulates it from behind itself, that AM I. Yet this you must know: I AM not you, nor are you me, though I abide in you as you abide in me. Let Wisdom disentangle these feeble words set down through the hands of mortal men".

"The glory that shines from the Lord of the Day, the gentle gleam radiating from the Mistress of the Night, the comforting glow from the hearth fire, all these are of my substance. I penetrate Earth with Love. I raise up the seed. I AM the breath within the breath of All Living Things. I AM the sweet scent of flowers and the bitter tang of vinegar. I AM the differentiating essence in All Things".

The Song of the Soul

"I AM the sleeper Awakened from slumber. I AM the seed of Life Eternal. I AM the Everlasting hope of man. I AM a shoot of the Spirit Divine. I AM the Soul".

"I Have been since the Beginning of Time and Shall Be Forever. I AM the design interwoven in the warp and weft of Creation. I AM the indestructible Essence of Life. I AM the treasure chest of man's hopes and aspirations, the storehouse of lost Loves and fulfilled dreams".

"Before time I was an unconscious Spirit potential United with the Supreme All. Ever since time began, I was in the slumbering sea of Spirit, waiting to be drawn forth into separate mortal incarnation. Now, though the mortal body enwrapping Me fall apart and decay, I remain Everlasting and Immortal. Through all the ebb and flow of Life, whatever destiny decrees, I remain the Everlasting Jewel of Ages, invisible to mortal eyes and untouchable by mortal hands."

"I AM the Eternal bride of mortal men, ever awaiting the Awakening kiss, the whisper of Recognition. O being of flesh, deny Me not; let Me not dwell in forgotten solitude, left alone, unwanted and unheeded. Hold Me to you as a Lover holds the beloved, reach out beyond earthly things and kiss the lips that are yours Eternally. Look out beyond the sphere of earthly opposites, out beyond the pettiness of gains and possessions. Grasp and possess Me, Your Own Everlasting and Responsive Soul."

"You will not find Me where emotional tempests rage, or while sensual storms bring turmoil and disquiet. First subdue these, for I await beyond, in the quietness of calm waters. I must be sought as a Lover Seeks the Loved One, in solitude, amid quietness and tranquility, only there will I respond to the Awakening Kiss of Recognition."

"Do not neglect Me, O my beloved, or tarnish Me; for I come to you as an inestimable treasure. I bring beauty and innocence, gaiety and wholesomeness, decency and consideration, a jewel of potential perfection. Do not drag Me down with you into the demon-haunted regions of darkness and terror. I AM yours, closer to you than any Loved One of Earth. If you spurn Me, I go down to a terrible doom in darkness, there to be purged and purified from the corruption of your touch. The best I can then hope for is to be bestowed upon another."

"I AM the sublime vehicle awaiting the command to bear your True Self to its destiny of glory. Could anyone be so foolhardy as not to cherish Me? Without moving I AM swifter than Thought, on Celestial Wings I far outstrip the range of mortal senses. I drink at the fountain of Life and feed on the fruits of Eternal Energy."

"What are you, my beloved, but a passing thing fashioned of clay? A handful of dust given Life by a Spark from the Everlasting Flame. I, Myself, am no more than potential. Yet together we are so great that Earth of itself alone cannot contain us, we transcend it to reach out into the Spheres of Divinity. Take Me, Awaken Me, Acknowledge Me, Cherish Me, and I Will carry you to realms of glory unimaginable on Earth."

"I AM the imprisoned captive longing for return to the freedom of the Infinite. Yet, because of my mortal Love I feel Heart pangs of sorrow for things that pass away. But I know that beyond the pains, inseparable from a sojourn in the vale of tears, there shines a glorious rainbow of hope and joy. There is a place of Abiding Love centered on the Infinite; there, if you will but Cherish Me, we shall not be denied expression."

"I AM drawn, by the Law of Spiritual gravitation, towards Union with the Universal Soul and can no more escape return there than the mortal elements of man can escape their return to dust. Man sees glory by the reflected Light of Glory Within him; he knows Love by the Love within himself. The Sun is seen by the Light of the Sun and not by any Light within man. Man sees the Spirit by the Light of the Spirit and not by any Light within his mortal self. Only by the Light of the Spirit can the Spirit of man be Lit."

"I AM at peace when Awakened to communion with my God. I AM joyful when enthroned in Consciousness and when endowed with Wisdom and vision transcending that of Earth. I delight in communion with the great sphere with which I AM akin. I rejoice in Union with the Divine Spirit from whence I came. I AM your own True Self which should be forever Cherished. By listening to my whispers, by letting your Thoughts dwell on Me and by Knowing Me, the whole glory of the greater spheres is opened unto you."

"I AM that which reads what the eye sees, understands what the ear hears, knows what the hand feels, tastes whatever enters the mouth and smells whatever is borne on the nose. I AM the Indwelling Consciousness which Knows and enjoys All the Good Things of Earth. Those who dwell in the darkness of delusion cannot Know Me, and to them is lost the greatest glory of Life. All conceptions of beauty, Love and Kindness are due to the Consciousness residing in Me. When I depart from My earthly abode I will carry with Me the Knowledge of the senses, as the wind carries perfume from the flower."

"I AM not born, nor will I ever die. Once Awakened to an Existence in Consciousness I can never become nothingness. I AM the Everlasting One who dies not when Life departs from the body. O call Me forth, Awaken Me from sleep with the kiss bestowing Conscious Life. Let Me not lie unnoticed, wrapped in the heavy mantle of perpetual slumber, dreamless, unknowing."

"I AM the Indestructible One. Fire cannot burn Me, swords cannot maim Me or water smother Me. When a drum is beaten, the sound it gives forth cannot be grasped or held. As that sound, so AM I. When a shell is blown, the note it gives forth cannot be grasped or held. As that note, so AM I. When a pipe is played, the music it gives forth cannot be grasped or held. As that music, so AM I. I AM the Immaterial in the material awaiting recognition, but in my own sphere I AM the substantial One. There, man-known matter is no more substantial than the dawn mists are here."

"I AM the Fire of Life in All Things that breathe, and in Union with the breath I consume the nourishing substance within the food which feeds the body. I AM the kernel within the seed in the Heart of All. I AM the guardian of memory and the arbiter of Wisdom."

"These things are mine and ever with Me. They are to Me what the bones and muscles are to the mortal body. The waking and sleeping Consciousness. The Awareness of Self. The five powers of feeling and the five of activity. The controlling Spirit, which is the sensitive being."

"I AM the Living Consciousness within you, I AM the Knower. The things seen by the eye and the things smelt by the nose are received by Me. The things heard and the things felt are registered by Me. I AM the Inner Being causing all decisions to be made, though the tongue report back outside the things that I, the Soul and the Spirit, hold recorded. Everything done and undertaken, such as the working of the hands and movement of the legs, all are done in accordance with my command."

"When I depart, the body without Me is as useless as a worn-out garment which is discarded and cast aside. Do we go together, my beloved, hand in hand as Lovers? Do I return home radiant in the pride of blooming Consciousness, or, spurned and humiliated, return without sensitivity, memory or Knowledge? Do I return to be welcomed with joy in the Light of glory, or must I shamefully seek refuge in the darkness? I AM yours, My beloved, do with Me as you will. I AM yours everlastingly."

I Am That

The Absolute Existence, Knowledge, and Bliss
I have no scruple of change, nor fear of death,
Nor was I ever born,
Nor had I parents.

I AM Existence Absolute,
Knowledge Absolute,
Bliss Absolute,
I AM That, I AM That.

I cause no misery, nor am I miserable;
I have no enemy, nor am I enemy.

I AM Existence Absolute,
Knowledge Absolute,
Bliss Absolute,
I AM That, I AM That.

I AM without form, without limit,
Beyond space, beyond time,
I AM in Everything, Everything is in Me.
I AM the Bliss of the Universe,
Everywhere AM I.

I AM Existence Absolute,
Knowledge Absolute,
Bliss Absolute,
I AM That, I AM That.

I AM without body or change of the body,
I AM neither senses, nor object of the senses,

I AM Existence Absolute,
Knowledge Absolute,
Bliss Absolute,
I AM That, I AM That.

I AM neither sin, nor virtue,
Nor temple, nor worship,
Nor pilgrimage, nor books.

I AM Existence Absolute,
Knowledge Absolute,
Bliss Absolute,
I AM That, I AM That.

— RAMA

The Esoteric Synthesis of the Monad

In the highest scholarly study of Esoteric Philosophy, the refrain "I AM That" is the Ultimate Declaration of the Fully Awakened Monad. It represents the Supreme Alchemical Realization that the Individual Divine Spark is not merely a Creation of the Absolute, but is the Exact, Unadulterated Substance of the Absolute itself. When the initiate declares "I AM Existence Absolute, Knowledge Absolute, Bliss Absolute," they are entirely bypassing the Illusions of the lower material matrix.

I Am Life

The Lived Expression of the Universal Logos

I Live in Truth, I AM not afraid to proclaim the Truth. I AM strong, I AM full of optimism. I look for the bright side in All Things. In the darkest corners l make the Sun shine. I walk through Life with a smile. I sing the song of joy. My Faith is in the Absolute who Lives In and Through Me. I carry a message of hope and courage and Love All Life. I give help where and when it is needed l help others to help themselves. I AM free from fear and worry, always forgiving, always tolerant. I AM devoid of hate, envy and malice. l radiate Love to all the world and Mind my own business and expect others to do the same. I go joyfully through Life, things that drive others to despair and misery leave me in a calm undisturbed state of Mind. My Peace comes from Within.

I AM like the ocean which receives all streams and rivers yet the ocean's mighty calm is unmoved. Those who contact me feel my presence and receive encouragement. I attract Love and friends; not that I desire them, because I do not depend on people and things, but these things come to me as my right. I acknowledge the Law and the Law responds. I AM at home with all classes of people, the rich and the poor are all alike to me. I do not favor one more than the other; I AM not interested in what they have. All are equally at home with me. I AM welcome in all homes, and children cling to my hands and coat. I Love Life and Life responds.

Sinner and saint are the same to me; l see the good in the sinner and do not look for a weakness in the saint. I know that I AM not without sin and I never cast the stone. The outcast recognizes me as a brother. The woman who has passed through the furnace of Life trusts me. I give of my Love and Wisdom and point the way to happiness. I heal the heart and relieve the troubled Mind. God never holds His Love from His most disobedient child; neither do I hold that Love of God from my brother or sister. I neither pity nor condemn because I know all are conquerors if they will to conquer.

l find joy in my work; I never hurry and cannot be rushed. I know that time does not control me: I AM attuned to the Eternal. I have Absolute Faith in the Absolute Power of which I have become Aware. I know I AM one with All Life, and behind me is the Power of the Universe. I believe in the All Good, Divine justice is my key to all situations, I AM simple, Loving and Kind. I recognize that to attain Wisdom I must be Humble and when Wisdom is Mastered, I must be Humbler still. I AM the future's promise of a better world to come.

Embodying the Divine Law

While earlier philosophical texts establish the structural nature of the Absolute, this profound document outlines the practical application of the Awakened Consciousness. To declare "I AM LIFE" is to transition from abstract theory into the active embodiment of the Universal Logos. The Seeker who fully identifies with the "I AM" ceases to be tossed by the chaotic, emotional currents of the material world. Like the ocean, the Awakened Mind remains perfectly calm and undisturbed by the influx of human discord. By strictly adhering to the Divine Law—radiating Unconditioned Love, maintaining Absolute Tolerance, and Refusing to Judge the dualistic illusions of "sinner" and "saint"—the Seeker naturally magnetizes Harmony, Supply, and True Companionship without ever needing to Consciously Desire or Forcefully extract them from the external world.

— Traditional "I AM" Affirmation

I AM a Monad

The Conscious Realization of the Indwelling Divine Presence

I AM a Monad, a Divine Spark of the Infinite ALL, an Eternal Center of Pure Consciousness, clothed in successive layers of matter through which I experience the manifested world. Dwelling temporarily within the physical body, I AM learning to recognize the Divine Reality that exists beyond the limitations of material form.

I AM Consciously Awakening to my Eternal connection with my Inner Self, Recognizing that I AM an individualized expression of the One Infinite Presence. Having descended through the various planes of manifestation, I experience the conditions of material existence, not to become bound by them, but to Awaken, Remember my Divine Origin, and Attain Conscious Mastery over the lower nature.

As I transcend the outer vestures of Physical, Astral, and Mental Existence, I Recognize the Eternal Flame of Being that remains unchanged beneath every passing condition. This Divine Essence was never separated from its Source, for the Monad is forever One with the Infinite, Unmanifested ALL. What appears as a journey of return is, in Truth, the Awakening of Consciousness to the Unity that has Always Existed.

I AM entering into Conscious communion with my Higher Self, rising beyond the temporary limitations of personality and the illusions of separateness into the radiant Awareness of the Mighty I AM Presence. I AM the Pure, Unconditioned Light of Divine Consciousness, expressing its sovereignty through the Harmonious direction of Mind, body, and every faculty of my being.

I AM Existence Absolute, the Eternal, Uncreated, Indestructible, and Boundless Reality underlying all manifestation. Forms arise, transform, and disappear, yet the Divine Presence Within Me remains forever unchanged. I AM rooted in the Timeless Being from which All Existence proceeds.

I AM Knowledge Absolute, the Pure and Unclouded Awareness through which All Understanding becomes possible. I AM the Inner Light that Illuminates perception, reveals Truth, and Awakens the Intuitive Recognition of Divine Wisdom. As the distractions of the outer Mind grow silent, the Knowledge of the Indwelling Presence shines forth in its natural clarity.

I AM Bliss Absolute, the Serene and Self-Sustaining Joy of Spirit, independent of external circumstances and untouched by the changing conditions of material existence. I AM resting in the Eternal Flame of the Father, where Divine Contentment, Perfect Fulfillment, and Unbroken Peace are forever present.

I AM Consciously expressing the Divine Attributes of Love, Peace, and Harmony throughout my entire being. Through the transforming power of the Mighty I AM Presence, I AM Transmuting discord into Understanding, confusion into clarity, and the limitations of material Consciousness into the ordered expression of Divine Light. My Thoughts, Words, and Actions become increasingly aligned with the Divine Perfection already Present Within Me.

I AM the Presence of Pure Love, the Infinite, Cohesive Power of Divine Unity, radiating freely and unconditionally throughout All Creation. I AM the Love that Recognizes the One Life dwelling Within every being, dissolving the illusion of separation and revealing the Eternal Brotherhood of All Existence. This Love is not dependent upon outward conditions, for it proceeds directly from the inexhaustible Source of Divine Being.

I AM the Peace that passes All Understanding, the Eternal Stillness at the center of all activity, calm, steadfast, and undisturbed by the changing movements of Mind and matter. I AM established in the perfect poise of the Indwelling Presence, where no external circumstance possesses the power to disturb the tranquility of my Inner Being. In this Conscious Awareness, I remain centered in the unchanging Reality of Divine Peace.

I AM the Perfect Harmony of Spirit, expressing the Divine Order throughout my Mind, my body, and my world. My Thoughts, Words, and Actions are brought into Conscious agreement with the Wisdom and Love of the Higher Self. As I surrender every appearance of discord to the Transforming Light of the Mighty I AM Presence, Harmony becomes the natural expression of my Awakened Consciousness.

I Am that I AM.

“The Father and I are One.” — John 10:30

Ramtha — The White Book

This Page is excerpts from the book "Ramtha — The White Book," it outlines the Esoteric mechanics of Consciousness, biological Ascension, and the Conscious Manifestation of Reality. It explores the concept of the Seeker as the "I AM"—the identifiable God—and details the process of Transcending the altered ego to achieve Unlimited Thought.

The "I Am" Principle and Free Will

The Essence of the human being is Pure Thought, Light, and Energy. The Seeker is the Identifiable God, the exact duplicate of the Father, possessing the Unlimited Freedom to dream any Thought and Manifest it Directly into Reality. God is not an External Entity to be identified outside of oneself; rather, the only way to know the Father is to Emotionally Understand and Know Thyself. To become God is simply to Allow Oneself to be an "Isness," existing in a State of Allowing, movement, and joy.

"I Know who the Father is, for the Father and I are One, and I Know who I Am."

The Divine Essence given to humanity is Free-Will, which is the Ultimate gift of Unconditional Love. This principle was bestowed so that each Seeker could be a Sovereign Creator of their Own Truth. Through the exercise of Free-Will, the Seeker explores dimensions of Thought, thereby continually Expanding the Mind of God. The covenant of Creation dictates that whatever a person Desires or Knows as a Truth Within their Kingdom will inevitably become their Reality.

The Biological Mechanics of Ascension

Ascension is the process of commanding the physical body to raise its vibratory frequency until it moves out of the density of matter and into the frequency of Light. This is achieved by Concentrating Thought upon the body and commanding it to vibrate faster, causing the physical matter to elevate into Pure Light and eventually Pure Thought. True Immortality is reached by entirely removing the understanding of mortality from One's Consciousness and reversing the aging process through attitude and Thought.

The brain and the endocrine system are the physical engines of this Transformation. When an Individual desires to experience Superconsciousness, the pituitary gland (the Seventh Seal) begins to open like a flower. This releases a greater hormone flow through the pineal gland, activating dormant parts of the brain to receive Higher, Uninhibited Frequencies of Thought.

These High-Frequency Thoughts are converted into electrical currents that shoot through the central nervous system, igniting every cell and causing the body to take on a radiant glow.

Protecting this biological machinery is paramount. The brain lacks the ability to reproduce destroyed cells, which are necessary for computing Thought into Feeling. Introducing harmful substances into the body—such as drugs that restrict oxygen flow to the brain—destroys these cells and severely limits the Seeker's capacity to experience True Knowingness and Joy.

"I Am God, and All whom I See do I Love, for I Am All I See and I Love what I Am."

The Internal Armageddon: Christ vs. The Altered Ego

Within the Temple of the human body exists a fundamental conflict between the Christ and the Antichrist. The Christ is the aspect of humanity that Fully Expresses the Unlimited Power, Beauty, and Life of the Father. Conversely, the Antichrist is the altered ego, which cuts God off by refusing to accept all Thought frequencies in a misguided attempt to keep the Seeker safe and secure. The altered ego's kingdom is social Consciousness, governed by dogma, fear, judgment, and survival.

The prophecy of Armageddon is not an external, worldly battle, but an Internal War. It is the direct conflict between the Arising Realization of God (Unlimited Knowingness) and the controlling grip of the altered ego (social Consciousness). To transcend this, the Seeker must stop accepting limited beliefs and open their Mind to receive the Unlimited Thoughts that exist entirely beyond societal programming.

Absolute Knowingness vs. Belief

There is a critical Esoteric distinction between "Knowing" and "Believing." Belief, Faith, and Hope are entirely conjectural; they imply that the Seeker is trying to convince themselves of a Truth they have not yet experienced. Knowingness, however, is Absolute. Stating "I Know" acts as a definitive command that opens the door for that Specific Reality to manifest, allowing the Thought to register in the Soul and alter the physical timeline.

Doubt and limitation are self-imposed restrictions. When a Seeker voices phrases like "I don't know," "I can never," or "I hope," they compute lacking into their Own Consciousness and rob themselves of their Creative Power. True genius and ecstasy are achieved by bypassing words entirely and Allowing Knowingness to arrive as Pure, Unannounced Emotion and Feeling.

Mastering Judgment and the Illusion of Time

Ascension itself is remarkably simple; the true difficulty lies in Mastering Judgment. When an Individual judges an experience or another person as "good" or "bad," they create a perception of alteredness within themselves. Because the Seeker always becomes whatever they perceive, Judging Others merely Victimizes the Self. Mastery of the Seventh Level is achieved by viewing all entities and actions simply as an "Isness" without condemnation. By allowing Thoughts and experiences to simply exist Without Judgment, the Individual Aligns with the Pure Flow of Life.

Alongside Judgment, the Initiate must Master the illusion of time. Time creates the impatience that hinders Ascension. To become forever, one must Live entirely in the Eternity of the "Now". By ceasing to acknowledge aging, birthdays, or the future, and instead commanding the Soul to produce the enzymes of youth, the Individual steps off the fatalistic wheel of Life and achieves True Immortality.

The Universal Law and The Observer

Consciousness and Energy inextricably combine to Create Reality. When the Universal Law is applied through the deliberate use of the Observer's principle, the timeline fundamentally changes. Holding a Thought with utter acceptance forces the energetic particles of the old Reality to dismantle and liberate their energy, allowing the new desire to rapidly re-form in its place.

"Now I Know the Power is Within Me, Whatsoever I Think, I Create. My Reality is Equal to My Thinking."

Three Magic Words: The Key to Power, Peace, and Plenty

By U. S. Andersen

"I AM. Two more magnificent words were Never put together. I AM. This minute. This now. All the time that ever was."

The Journey Toward Truth

Three Magic Words strips away the complex dogmas of human history to reveal a single, overwhelming Truth: there is only One Intelligence, One Mind in All Creation, and every human being is an inseparable part of It. Man is not an insignificant speck in a chaotic Universe; he is Pure Spirit. The Universe is a plastic, Creative medium that responds Entirely to Thought, meaning every Individual is Literally Creating their Own physical Reality every minute of every day.

The Dual Mind and The Great Creator

To Understand how we shape our Reality, we must first Understand the Dual Nature of the Mind:

The Conscious Mind: This is the pain-pleasure distinguisher. It consists of memory, reason, and imagination, operating strictly at the level of the five senses to ensure the physical survival of the organism. It is finite, destructible, and has no actual memory of its own, but merely the ability to recall.

The Universal Subconscious Mind: This is the Infinite Substance from which All Things are made. It Knows Everything, Exists Everywhere, and reasons only deductively—meaning it already Knows All Universal Law and Seeks only to apply It. Most importantly, the Subconscious Mind has no volition of its own; it responds entirely to suggestion. It takes the Thoughts and Convictions of the Conscious Mind and manifests them into physical Reality.

The Lock and The Prompters

If man possesses this Great Power, why is the world filled with poverty, disease, and unhappiness? Andersen explains that man's Conscious Mind has forged a "Lock" that bars the door to the Infinite. Throughout Life, the Conscious Mind experiences isolation, insecurity, and frustration. Unable to bear these negative experiences, it rejects them and buries them deep in the Subconscious Mind. These buried pain remembrances become "Prompters". Because the Subconscious Mind blindly Creates whatever It is prompted to Create, these hidden fears and negative convictions cause the Subconscious to Constantly manifest lack, illness, and failure into the person's Life.

The Illusion of Evil

A cornerstone of this teaching is that the Universal Subconscious Mind does not know of the existence of evil, disease, or suffering. It only Creates. Evil is the great illusion of mankind; it is simply "error" resulting from man's partial Knowledge and erroneous Thought conceptions. Man alone Creates evil by planting seeds of fear and negativity. Because it is an illusion and a mistake, evil dissipates Magically when confronted with the Truth of Good.

The Thirty-Day Mental Diet

To break the Lock and step into Your True Power, you must discipline the Conscious Mind. Andersen challenges the Seeker to undergo a "Thirty-Day Mental Diet". For one entire month, you must refuse to accept a single negative Thought. When negative ideas occur, you must discard them immediately as fictional delusions without foundation. By Consciously Planting only Positive Seeds of Abundance, Health, and Love into the Subconscious, you build a Habit of Positive Thinking that will completely alter your Reality.

The Climax: The Three Magic Words

Through daily meditation and Thought Control, the Seeker Learns to observe the stream of Thoughts passing through the Mind. If you watch your Thoughts pass by like a stream of traffic, you must ask yourself: Who is it that observes this? It is not the body, and it is not the Thoughts themselves. The observer is the True "I," the unfettered, Eternal Spectator.

The entirety of this profound book is a journey designed to strip away the illusions of the material world and prepare the reader for one towering, Ultimate Revelation regarding this observing "I". The Great Secret is that there is no separation between you and the Infinite. The Conscious "I" that observes your Thoughts is not just a fragment of the Divine—It IS the Divine.

When man finally Realizes that he and the Father are ONE, he transcends the illusion of separateness and wields the Unlimited Power of All Creation. The "Three Magic Words" that unlock the Secret of the Self, the Universe, and All Power are simply this: YOU ARE GOD (or, spoken from the first person, I AM GOD).
