

God is ALL in All

About This Publication

This PDF is a complete reproduction of the Spiritual Communion and Direct Revelation Hub from the God is ALL in All website. Founded upon the Perennial Philosophy and the exploration of humanity's relationship with the Divine, this study examines Esoteric teachings and Cosmological Revelations presented through Spiritual Mediumship and Divine Inspiration. Through an examination of the Pre-Existence and Progression of the Soul, the Higher Spiritual Spheres, the surrender of personal will, and the Hidden Laws governing human Existence, these teachings illuminate the relationship between the visible and invisible dimensions of Creation. At its heart lies the fundamental Principle that Spiritual Evolution is a journey of Conscious Awakening, through which the individual Soul progressively recognizes its Divine Origin and moves toward greater Harmony, Wisdom, and Unity with the Eternal Source of All Life.

This is a Philosophical and Spiritual endeavor to extract, Harmonize, and synthesize the Universal Truths underlying the world's Diverse Religious, Mystical, and Philosophical traditions. Most famously associated with the concept of Perennial Philosophy, it posits that All Major Traditions share a single, transcendent metaphysical Source and Core Set of Truths.

"By the Power of Truth, I, while Living, have Conquered the Universe."

"I Am Nothing, yet I Am Everything."

Welcome to the foundation. Before the architecture of the Mind can be understood, and before the Immutable Laws of the Universe can be Consciously applied, we must first establish the Origin of All Existence.

This archive is the House of Wisdom, the culmination of nearly three decades of dedicated academic study and silent Knowingness—a deliberate synthesis of the Universal Truths that weave through the world's Hermetics, Theosophy, Philosophy, Religion, Symbolism, and Esoteric traditions brought together, not to erase their differences, but to invite careful study of the deeper questions they all address, the Connectedness of All Things. We do not approach these mechanics as mere dogma, but as the functional, logical Reality of the Cosmos.

The central thesis of this work is that beneath humanity's many Religious, Mystical, and Philosophical traditions lies a Single Transcendent Source that has been described in different languages throughout history. Throughout this website, Historical Context is presented alongside Esoteric Interpretation. Historical Context Seeks to Understand what a text meant within its original time and culture. Esoteric Interpretation explores the Symbolic and Spiritual significance that Seekers have found within those same texts across the centuries. Both perspectives are valuable. One Illuminates the Letter; the other Seeks the Spirit.

At the Absolute Center of this Perennial Philosophy lies a singular, foundational revelation: God is the ALL-in-All.

Spiritual Communion and Direct Revelation

The Esoteric works and Cosmological Histories in this directory were produced through Direct Spiritual Mediumship and Divine Influx. It is dedicated to profound, unfiltered transmissions from the Higher Spheres, focusing on the Soul's Voluntary Sacrifice of Personal Will, the precise mechanics of Spirit communication, and the Hidden Spiritual Laws governing human Existence, Holistic Wellness, and Eternal Progression.

The History of the Origin of All Things: A sweeping cosmological revelation received through the mediumship of Levi M. Arnold in 1852. This text details the Pre-Existence of the Soul, the Infinite Mercy of the Creator, and the Systematic Spiritual Progression of mankind through a structured hierarchy of Heavenly Spheres and Circles, Ultimately Guiding the Seeker toward Absolute Unity with the Divine.

The History of Health and Its Derangements: A channeled transmission that redefines wellness as the Perfect Divine Harmony of the Body, Soul, and Spirit. Rejecting the use of noxious chemical interventions, this work explores how Faith, Moral Action, and the Invisible Assistance of Guardian Spirits utilize natural Energetic Forces to restore recuperative power and cure the Spiritual roots of physical disease.

Revealed Translation of John's Revelation: A channeled interpretation of the biblical Apocalypse transmitted by Jesus Christ through the medium Archie J. Inger. This text decodes John's symbolic visions not as literal earthly prophecies, but as an Esoteric Map of the Soul's Journey, redefining the "Beast" as human selfishness and "The Lamb" as a State of Perfect Divine Submission, while emphasizing the Absolute Necessity of Direct Spirit Communication for True Salvation.

The Historical Fulfillment of John's Revelation: Acting as the material companion to his Esoteric Translations, this channeled work by Archie J. Inger decodes the apocalyptic symbols of John's vision into literal historical events. The text maps the parallel corruption of both the early Church and the Roman Empire through the centuries, identifying orthodox religious institutions as "Babylon the Great," and prophesies the ultimate collapse of civil and religious tyranny to make way for the Fifth Universal Empire, which will be a True, World Wide Reign of Divine Truth.

The Life of Jesus of Nazareth: A channeled autobiography dictated by the Spirit of Jesus the Christ through the mediumship of L. M. Arnold. This text details the Esoteric History of His physical incarnation—including His past planetary existences and His education by Egyptian priests—while establishing that the Ultimate Path to Salvation requires the Complete Sacrifice of Human Free-Will to the Internal Revelation of the Comforter.

The History of the Origin of All Things

"Who can Overcome Him whose Mind is stayed on God"

The History of the Origin of All Things is a profound Spiritual Revelation received through mediumship, detailing the Eternal Nature of the Soul, the Infinite Mercy of the Creator, and the systematic Spiritual Progression of mankind. Originally published in 1852, the text asserts itself as a transmission from God's Holy Spirit, specifically guided by Jesus the Christ, to eradicate humanity's ignorance, fear, and torturing doubt regarding the afterlife.

About the Author
Levi M. Arnold (1813–1864) was a resident of Poughkeepsie, New York, who possessed a Quaker background. A gentle, frugal, and public-spirited man, he managed the "Poughkeepsie Foundry" and was a chief promoter in incorporating the city's First National Bank. In April 1851, Arnold began receiving preparatory Spiritual Revelations via movements of his pencil and internal voices. Over the course of a year, he was disciplined by the Spirit world to become a passive, humble, and truthful medium, resulting in the penciled manuscripts that became this expansive history. He died of typhoid fever in 1864, having Lived a Life of quiet Humility while harboring these massive Cosmological Revelations.

"The life of man here is short, hereafter it is Eternal. Everlasting to Everlasting is his generation. But the Last shall be First in glory and First with God... All shall be, forever, the children of God and All shall, in the future, see God.

"But the last shall be first in glory and first with God. The first shall be last with men. But the glory of the last is eternal, and the glory of the first vanishes as dew before the beams of God's love. All shall be, forever, the children of God and all shall, in the future, see God. But the last shall be first and the first, last."

From Chapter IV (Framed around the reward of spiritual labor):
"At the eleventh hour the laborers will be many; and each man who works to the end shall receive equally the reward of a faithful laborer. That reward is Eternal Life. For the last shall be first and the first last. But to Him who Endureth to the End is laid up a Crown of Glory..."

From Chapter XXVIII (The ultimate esoteric equalization):
"But the last shall be first; and the first, last. And the last and the first, and the first and the last, are all equally Sons and Sent, or Christs, of God."

The Esoteric Meaning Behind the Phrasing
In this Cosmology, those who are "First with men"—those who pursue worldly power, pride, orthodox religious dominance, and material wealth—are acting entirely in their own ego-driven Free-Will. Because this earthly glory is transient, it "vanishes as dew," leaving them "last" in their Spiritual Progression when they enter the Spirit World.

Conversely, those who are "Last" on earth—the Humble, the Passive, the Persecuted, and Those who Sacrifice their Personal Will to the Divine—are instantly elevated. Because they have already stripped away the illusions of the material world, they are "First in Glory and First with God," moving rapidly into the Higher Spheres of Divine Action.

Yet, the Ultimate Beauty of the text's Theology is the Great Equalizer: eventually, through the Infinite Mercy of God and the mechanics of Spiritual Progression, All Souls Will Surrender their Will and reach the Same Ultimate State of Divinity.

The Esoteric Nature of the Revelation
While drawing upon Christian terminology, this book is a foundational work of Esoteric Spirituality, guiding the Seeker past orthodox literalism into the hidden mechanics of the Universe. It is classified as an Esoteric masterpiece for several key reasons:

The Pre-existence of the Soul: Man's Spirit emanated from God long before the earth was formed, dwelling originally in a tranquil, passive state of Paradise. The Soul desired the Knowledge of good and evil and thus descended into a physical body to gain active experience.

The Nature of Christ: Jesus of Nazareth is presented as the Ultimate Exemplar (Avatar)—the first inhabitant of Earth to reach the Highest Spiritual Circle (the Seventh Circle of the Seventh Sphere) through the complete surrender of His Free-Will to God.

The Supremacy of Free-Will: Man's Free-Will is his defining characteristic and his greatest obstacle. True Spiritual advancement only occurs when an Individual Voluntarily Sacrifices their personal Will to the Divine Will, achieving perfect Harmony with the Creator.

The "Inner" vs. "Outer" Interpretation: The text explicitly rejects the literalism of the orthodox church. It reinterprets biblical narratives—such as the Garden of Eden, the Fall of Man, and the Deluge—as Spiritual Allegories or Cosmic Laws rather than strict historical events. For example, the "Windows of Heaven" are described not as physical rain, but as the portals of God's mercy.

Emanation and the Journey of the Soul: Rejecting the orthodox view that God Created the Universe out of nothing, this text teaches that human Souls are Direct Emanations from God. The Soul leaves a passive state in Paradise to descend into matter, gains experience, and Actively Evolves back up the Spiritual Ladder to Reunite with the Creator.

Direct Revelation (Gnosis): Esotericism prioritizes Direct, Personal Spiritual Knowledge over Faith in institutional authority. The book claims to be a product of this Direct Communion and urges the reader to bypass external authorities to find the Divine Within through the Sacrifice of the Individual Will.

The Attainable Christ-State: In this Cosmology, "Christ" is a Divine Principle and a state of Ultimate Spiritual Perfection. Jesus of Nazareth is presented as the Great Exemplar (Avatar)—the first inhabitant of Earth to reach the Highest Spiritual Circle. However, the text insists that All spirits, through rigorous progression, are destined to become "Sons of God" and Joint Heirs to this Exact Same Cosmic Power and Glory.

Infinite Mercy and Universal Salvation: The text vehemently rejects the doctrine of eternal damnation, asserting that God is a being of Pure Love who will Ultimately Reconcile All Souls to Himself, Overcoming All evil through Continuous Spiritual Progression.

The Architecture of the Heavens: Spheres and Circles
The book maps the Soul's Evolutionary Journey through a highly structured Cosmology of Seven Spheres, each containing Seven Circles. As Spirits progress, they shed earthly illusions and acquire Deeper Divine Attributes.

Emanation & Descent

The First Sphere: The Cycles of Existence
This Sphere outlines the states of the Soul's physical and immediate post-physical existence, the starting point. The soul doesn't begin on Earth; it begins in the First Circle as a pre-existing emanation in Paradise, descending into the physical body (Second Circle) to gain the friction of active experience

First Circle: Existence as a Spirit in Paradise, prior to earthly incarnation.
Second Circle: Existence in the physical body during infancy and childhood.
Third Circle: Youth, marked by the emergence of sexual Love and courtship.
Fourth Circle: Maturity, properly developed through conjugal and parental Love.
Fifth Circle: Decline, manifested in the duties of grandparents.
Sixth Circle: The experience of sickness and the death of the physical body.
Seventh Circle: The commencement of Spiritual Existence in Continual Progress toward Perfection.

Universal Salvation
The Second & Third Spheres: These spheres represent the actual mechanics of Infinite Mercy. Instead of eternal damnation, the Soul experiences a calculated "Separation from the evil of despair" (Third Sphere, Third Circle), ensuring that even the most stubborn will eventually progresses.

The Second Sphere: The Awakening of Consciousness
Here, the Spirit develops profound Awareness of its Relationship with the Divine.

First Circle: Consciousness of basic existence.
Second Circle: Consciousness of Love.
Third Circle: Consciousness of God's providential care.
Fourth Circle: Consciousness of God's immense Love for man.
Fifth Circle: Consciousness of God's absolute resolution to save mankind.
Sixth Circle: Consciousness of possessing Free-Will.
Seventh Circle: The Ultimate Realization that God must be served.

The Third Sphere: The Process of Separation
This sphere involves the Spirit shedding the limitations, pains, and illusions of its past.

First Circle: Separation from God.
Second Circle: Separation from others of a similar nature.
Third Circle: Separation from the evil of despair.
Fourth Circle: Separation from the evil of hate.
Fifth Circle: Separation from all the evils of doubt.
Sixth Circle: Separation from the lower Self and Consciousness of the past.
Seventh Circle: Complete separation from the body, achieving a preliminary Unity with God.

Gnosis (Direct Revelation)
The Fourth & Fifth Spheres: Progress here is no longer measured by physical actions, but by the acquisition of Divine Wisdom. The Soul shifts from relying on earthly "educational Wisdom" (Fourth Sphere, Fifth Circle) to receiving direct "Divine Impression" (Fifth Sphere, Sixth Circle).

The Fourth Sphere: The Acquisition of Wisdom
Spirits in this sphere acquire vast historical and Universal Knowledge.

First Circle: Wisdom gained through reasoning powers or intellect.
Second Circle: Wisdom through the Spirit's Mental faculty (conscience).
Third Circle: Wisdom by Intuition or Divine Impression.
Fourth Circle: Wisdom by the instinct of animals.
Fifth Circle: Wisdom through the Laws of men (educational Wisdom).
Sixth Circle: Wisdom by the Laws of progress (experience and memory).
Seventh Circle: Wisdom through Direct Spiritual communication and a comprehensive Understanding of the Infinite Worlds Within God's Creation.

The Fifth Sphere: The Elevation of Reason
This sphere transcends earthly logic, aligning the Spirit's Reasoning with Divine Law and Prophecy.

First Circle: Reason by Intuition.
Second Circle: Reason by logical form.
Third Circle: Reason driven by religious sentiment, developing the intellect toward higher objects.
Fourth Circle: Reason by the Power of Will.
Fifth Circle: Reason by the Power of Love.
Sixth Circle: Reason by the Power of God, achieved by yielding Fully to Spiritual Influences.
Seventh Circle: Reason manifested by Recognizing the Divine Essence Within the Soul, alongside a Vast Knowledge of Spirit Revelation from the beginning of time.

The Attainable Christ-State
The Sixth & Seventh Spheres: The culmination of the Esoteric Journey. The Soul stops merely receiving Knowledge and begins Actively Executing God's Will (Sixth Sphere), Ultimately Achieving Complete Assimilation to Divinity in the Seventh Sphere, fulfilling the promise that All Spirits are destined to become Joint Heirs to Cosmic Power.

The Sixth Sphere: The Perfection of Judgment and Power
Spirits in this sphere transition from receiving Knowledge to Actively Executing God's Will throughout the Universe.

First Circle: Judgment by Intuition (presence of Mind), combined with the Power of Prophecy.
Second Circle: Judgment by the effort of reason, wielding the Power of God's Love to reform Souls.
Third Circle: Judgment by the Power of Love, gaining the ability to influence the physical realm (the Power of Will).
Fourth Circle: Judgment by the Power of Wisdom (internal revelation), gaining Knowledge of God's Laws of matter.
Fifth Circle: Judgment by Divine Influence, possessing the Power to Influence the Will of men still in the body.
Sixth Circle: Judgment by Divine Impression upon the Spiritual Intellect.
Seventh Circle: Judgment perfectly aligned with the Love of God, representing a Total Surrender of the Will to God's Influence.

The Seventh Sphere: Assimilation to Divinity
The ultimate destination for all Created Spirits. In the Seventh Circle of the Seventh Sphere, the Spirit's Will is so Perfectly Unified with the Creator that it shares in God's Power, Glory, Love, and Action, functioning as a True "Son of God" while Eternally Retaining the Memory of its Unique Individual Journey.

The History of the Origin of All Things

The History of Health and Its Derangements

"The usual curative agents are noxious substances, which derange some other part of the system than was at first affected... The true reliance is the recuperative power of the bodily organization and the mental confidence which reacts upon the body..."

I. The Premise of Direct Revelation

This text does not present itself as a philosophical treatise, but as a direct, word-for-word transmission from the Lord Jesus Christ, delivered through the mediumship of L. M. Arnold. The book demands that the reader look past the "elegance of rhetorical structure" and focus entirely on the Spiritual Truths being channeled. It emphasizes that True Communion with the Divine is experienced internally as a "Still Small Voice," which requires the complete surrender of man's Free-Will to God.

II. The Spiritual Nature of Health and Disease

The book redefines the very concepts of Wellness and Illness, stripping away purely physical explanations to reveal their Spiritual roots. Health is defined as the Divine Harmony of the Body, Soul, and Spirit. Derangements of health (diseases) are simply the physical manifestations of a disturbance in this Spiritual Harmony. Disease is not a punishment to be feared, but a Benevolent, Corrective Dispensation from God designed to turn the Soul away from earthly lusts and back toward Divine Alignment. Death is not an evil, but a welcomed transition; it is the process that releases the body from the "odic force" so that the Spirit can continue its Eternal Progression.

III. The Rejection of Noxious Medicine

Aligning perfectly with a natural, unpolluted approach to the physical body, the text mounts a severe critique of mainstream medical practices of the 19th century. The text explicitly argues against the reliance on pharmaceuticals, noting that usual curative agents are "noxious substances" that only create new derangements in the system. It specifically calls out the toxicity of treatments like calomel, arguing that any perceived cures are actually the result of the body's natural recuperative powers fighting both the disease and the drug. Both allopathy and homeopathy are criticized as being steeped in empirical ignorance.

The author argues that True Healing bypasses chemical interventions entirely, relying instead on the Pure, Untainted Recuperative Energy of the bodily organization.

IV. The Mechanics of Faith and "Odic" Healing

If chemical medicine is rejected, the text replaces it with a highly structured theory of energetic and faith-based healing. Faith is presented as the Ultimate Curative Agent, capable of superseding medicine entirely. When a patient and a healer operate in Pure Faith, the Soul draws upon Invisible "magnetic-od and electric-od" forces present in the atmosphere to revive and restore the body's normal action. This Faith also acts as a beacon, drawing in the assistance of Guardian Spirits—departed Loved Ones who can invisibly aid the physical body when their Will Unites with the patient's Faith. Miracles are not violations of natural law, but rather the Execution of Higher, Unseen Spiritual Laws through the Perfect Submission of a human medium to God's Will.

V. The Dangers and Duties of Mediumship (Clairvoyance)

Clairvoyants possess the ability to see the Internal State of a diseased body like a luminous lamp, but they are highly susceptible to error if they rely on lower spirits for diagnoses. To avoid dangerous misdiagnoses, a medium must bypass lower spirits and Seek Direct Divine Direction through sincere, submissive prayer to God. A True Spiritual physician must never practice for "filthy lucre," worldly honor, or reputation. The healer must act solely for the Glory of God and the relief of suffering, requiring no praise and offering their services freely to the poor and distressed.

Revealed Translation of John's Revelation

"I, the Lord Jesus Christ am the writer of this book by revelation through this medium, Archie Inger. I have interpreted the meaning of John's Revelation which should be interpreted in this day to prepare the way of my last coming upon the earth."

Revealed Translation of John's Revelation is not a traditional biblical commentary or academic exegesis. It presents itself as a direct, channeled transmission from Jesus the Christ to the medium Archie J. Inger. The text serves as a "key to the Scriptures" and a guide to the mechanics of Spiritual Salvation, designed to strip away centuries of orthodox misinterpretation, translations, and human dogma. The core premise is that the original biblical Revelation was deliberately veiled in mystery and symbol, only to be fully unveiled in the modern age through Direct Spiritual Communion.

I. The Medium and the Method of Transmission
The book underscores the absolute necessity of a passive, submissive medium for Pure Divine Transmission. Archie J. Inger is described as a Humble Individual without practical education, chosen specifically so that the writings could not be attributed to his own intellect or reasoning. The text insists that a true prophet must become a "blank unwritten upon," sacrificing all personal convictions, worldly ambitions, and Free-Will so that God's Wisdom can be transmitted without mortal distortion. The minor difficulties or disarrangements in the phrasing of the book are intentional, left by the Spirit to prevent the text from being read casually; it demands deep pondering and prayerful submission to be understood.

II. The Esoteric Reinterpretation of the Apocalypse
The text uses the symbols of John's Revelation not to describe literal, historical, or future earthly wars, but to map the internal, psychological, and spiritual evolution of the human Soul and the destruction of the human ego.

The Seven Churches as Spiritual Gifts: The churches in Asia (Ephesus, Pergamos, Smyrna, Philadelphia, Sardis, Laodicea, and Thyatira) are not merely historical congregations, but represent the Seven Divine gifts bestowed upon every individual: Existence, Consciousness, Individuality, Wisdom, Reason, Judgment, and Love.

The Lamb as a State of Existence: In this Cosmology, "The Lamb" is not exclusively a historical figure, but a state of being—a Complete and Perfect submission to God's Will (Mount Zion). Jesus of Nazareth was the first to reach this state and thus became the Lamb, but it is a condition achievable by All Redeemed Souls.

The Beast (666) and "Formation": The dreaded Beast is revealed to be "Formation"—anything that man can handle, control, or build using his own selfish will, including earthly governments, personal wealth, and even orthodox religions and creeds.

Babylon and the United States: Babylon represents the pinnacle of mortal, selfish ambition. The text explicitly identifies the United States as the modern head of Babylon (the "great whore"), noting that despite its high progress and claims of freedom, it has become corrupted by extreme selfishness, unequal distribution, and political injustice. Its eventual "fall" will not be by foreign war, but by a total internal restructuring driven by the demands of the people and the influx of Divine Revelation.

III. The Necessity of Spirit Communication

Aligning perfectly with the theme of this hub, the book asserts that true Christianity and Spiritual Progression are impossible without the Active Intervention and Communication of departed spirits. The Souls of the redeemed (the Angels and Saints) are the Active Administrators of God's Will on earth. The book rejects the idea that a person can rely solely on their own judgment or reading of the Bible to Find Truth; without Direct Inspiration or Revelation from Spirits, human reason will always fall into selfishness and error. Spirits actively manipulate the Lives of mortals—sometimes bringing illness, financial ruin, or family confusion—specifically to break down a person's arrogance and self-reliance, forcing them to look toward God.

IV. The Ultimate Goal: The Sacrifice of Free Will

The central theological pillar of the book is the battle between God's Will and Man's Free Will. "Satan" or the "Devil" is not a horned entity, but the manifestation of man's own selfish, unguided Free-Will. To Live for oneself is considered "murder," and the only path to Eternal Peace is the Total, Unconditional Surrender of Personal Ambitions to the dictates of the Holy Spirit.

The Nature of Damnation: The text mercifully redefines eternal damnation. It is not everlasting torture in fire, but rather a protective boundary. Souls are "damned" (prohibited) from entering Eternity in a corrupted state; they must remain in a state of "weeping" (working out their sins and Realizing the futility of their earthly desires) in the Spirit World until they finally Surrender Their Will to God.

The Historical Fulfillment of John's Revelation

"Fixed opinions are always the enemies of Truth, whether they are fixed by an individual for himself; by a church for its members; or by a country for its people. We all possess so little Truth that our philosophy is generally maintained by mere combativeness alone; while a Truth will not only stand upon its own merits, but will grow."

The Historical Fulfillment of John's Revelation serves as the material companion to Archie J. Inger's Spiritual translations. Before receiving these revelations, Inger was a skeptic who disapproved of organized religion, viewing it as a form of eternal bondage to creed and dogma. In an hour of despair, his skepticism was shattered by a three-week communion with Angels, during which he was liberated from doubt and introduced to a creedless, boundless doctrine. Three years later, the Christ appeared to him in a vision, dictating the Spiritual interpretation of the Apocalypse, followed subsequently by this specific historical key, which he was commanded to withhold until the Spirit granted permission to publish.

I. The Dual Prophecy: Church and State
Inger's revelation posits that John's apocalyptic vision was twofold, designed to simultaneously track the trajectory of Spiritual Power (the Church) and Civil Power (the Roman Empire and its successors). Because these forces were distinct but closely allied, God utilized two parallel sets of symbols: the Four Beasts (representing the Church around the throne) and the Four Horses (representing the earthly Roman government).

The First Era: The Lion and the White Horse In its earliest days, the Church existed in its purest, fearless state, represented by the Lion. Armed only with Faith and Majestic Truth, it reigned victorious over its obstacles. Parallel to this, the Roman government was symbolized by the White Horse, marking an era of victory, peace, and conquering expansion. Historically, this occurred shortly after the birth of Christ under rulers like Octavius Caesar, who was given a crown and went forth conquering.

The Second Era: The Calf and the Red Horse As time progressed, the Church lost its unmolested victory and was represented by the Calf, becoming a beast of sacrifice and slaughter both materially and Spiritually. The corresponding civil government was depicted as the Red Horse, signifying a period of intense bloodshed and danger where peace was taken from the earth by the sword. This era was initiated by Nero around A.D. 54, who burned Rome and slaughtered Christians, sparking 250 years of severe persecution.

The Third Era: The Face of a Man and the Black Horse During the third period, the Church was symbolized by a beast with the Face of a Man, indicating the loss of its Divine character as it submitted to human dictation, dogma, and the worldly aspirations of its bishops. The civil power transitioned to the Black Horse, representing a time of literal and figurative darkness, famine, and the strict rationing of wheat and barley. Historically, this aligns with Constantine embracing Christianity in A.D. 306 and corrupting it with worldly power, while Alaric the Barbarian simultaneously invaded Rome, causing extreme famine.

The Fourth Era: The Flying Eagle and the Pale Horse In the final stage of this prophecy, the Church soared to absolute political dominance, represented by the Flying Eagle. It became a bold, merciless predator that tortured its enemies. The Roman government, now depicted as the Pale Horse ridden by Death, lost its vitality and submitted entirely to the dictates of the Pope. This culminated historically in the brutal Papal persecutions, where dissenters were systematically slaughtered, starved, roasted, and fed to beasts.

II. The Identification of Babylon (The Great Whore)

The text explicitly identifies "Mystery, Babylon the Great" as the Roman Catholic Church, stripped of its Divine Authority and reigning over the kings of the earth.

The Symbolism of Wealth: The harlot's purple and scarlet garments are the exact colors worn by the Pope and his Cardinals, and her decking of precious stones reflects the unimaginable, hoarded wealth of the papal court.

The Babylonian Connection: The Catholic rituals—such as the wafer (called "mola"), holy water, and celibate priesthood—are traced directly back to Semiramis, the first "Queen of Heaven" in ancient Babylon, exposing the church's pagan roots.

III. The Seven Kings and the Ten Horns

The "Beast with Seven Heads" represents the sequence of Seven Earthly Powers that historically supported papal supremacy.

1. Justinian (Eastern Empire)
2. Pepin (France)
3. Henry (Germany)
4. Charles of Anjou (Naples)
5. Spain
6. Austria
7. Napoleon (France) – fulfilling the prophecy that he would "continue a short space" by supporting the Pope for only 10 years before his banishment.

The Eighth: Austria, after falling and being reorganized, supported the papacy once more.

The Ten Horns: These represent the ten divided states of Italy, which were controlled by Austria (the beast). Eventually, these states united into a kingdom, turned their hatred upon the papal power, and invaded Rome on September 12, 1870, stripping the Pope of his political authority and making the harlot "desolate".

IV. Protestantism and the "Two Witnesses"

Inger does not spare the reformed churches from this Divine critique. Protestantism is classified as the "child of the harlot". While figures like Martin Luther were Divine instruments used to break Catholic tyranny, they overstepped their authority by establishing new, narrow creeds. Protestant churches are condemned for maintaining the same hypocrisies, absorbing themselves in societal status, and demanding adherence to dogmas rather than Requiring Genuine, Unselfish Works.

The "Two Witnesses" of Revelation, long slain and lying in the street because they were fundamentally misunderstood, are the prophecies of Daniel and the Revelation of John. When properly understood, these texts arise to condemn all superstitious and dogmatic religions that have falsely claimed the authority of Christ.

V. The Final Alliance and the End of the World

The end of the world is defined not as physical annihilation, but as the end of the current epoch of civil and religious tyranny, paving the way for the Fifth Universal Empire (the reign of Truth). The "Second Beast" with two horns like a lamb represents the Greek Church (Russia). The prophecy predicts a final, shocking alliance between the Roman Catholic Church, the Greek Church, and the Church of England, driven by the decaying authority of monarchs and a desperate attempt to resist the incoming wave of Spiritual Progress and Free Thought.

The Life of Jesus of Nazareth

"The True Light, which Enlighteneth every man that cometh into the world, is that which Shines in his Heart, and becomes manifest to others by his Actions and Deeds."

This text presents itself as a direct communication from the Soul of Jesus of Nazareth, transmitted through the willing and passive mediumship of L. M. Arnold in March 1853. Arnold, a humble businessman, sacrificed his sleep and personal will to receive these dictations during his early morning hours, seeking neither fame nor financial reward. The text explicitly warns against relying purely on human reason or demanding outward miracles, urging the reader instead to cultivate "Internal Revelation"—the ability to hear the "Still Small Voice" of God Within the Heart.

I. The Cosmic Origin of the Word and Christ

The book radically redefines the orthodox understanding of the Trinity, the Word, and the nature of the Soul.

The Word: The Word is a distinct procedure separated from God in the remote Beginnings of Eternity. It acts as the Divine agent through which All matter and mankind were Created, having No Will of its Own other than the Will of God.

The Soul of Jesus: Jesus's Soul was created in Paradise alongside all other Souls. Prior to his earthly incarnation, He experienced the Knowledge of Good and Evil on the planet Saturn, where He was aided by a spirit whose own bodily residence had been on an undiscovered ninth planet.

The Attainment of Sonship: Jesus did not exist as the equal of God from All Eternity. He became the "only begotten Son" because He Perfectly Submitted His Free-Will to the Father out of Profound Gratitude, Ultimately Ascending to the Sixth and Seventh Circles of the Seventh Sphere of Eternal Progress.

II. The Untold Earthly Life of Jesus

The text fills in biographical gaps of Jesus's physical incarnation, presenting a history independent of orthodox tradition.

The Betrothal: Mary, a pure virgin dedicated to the Temple, was chosen for Joseph—a pious widower around forty years old—because his rod miraculously budded and blossomed in the sanctuary while others remained dry.

The Conception: During their betrothal, Mary was overshadowed by the Holy Spirit (the Word). This made Jesus the rightful heir of David both by legal repute through Joseph, and by blood through Mary.

Egypt and Early Education: Following His birth in a Bethlehem stable, He was visited by the Magi, whose rich gifts sustained the family during their flight to Egypt. In Egypt, from the age of four, Jesus was recognized by a priestly class who instructed Him in their institutions and traditions.

Life in Nazareth: Returning to Judea, Jesus worked as a carpenter to assist Joseph and grew alongside his physical brothers, James and Jude, and his sisters, Mary and Martha or Margaret (noted as kin to Lazarus).

The Baptism: At age thirty, Jesus was baptized by John the Baptizer, the last in the line of Mosaic prophets, who recognized Him as the promised Messiah and realized his own outward work was concluding.

III. The Comforter and the Supreme Sacrifice

The Ultimate Purpose of the text is to guide humanity away from external religious forms and toward direct, Internal Spiritual Communion.

The Comforter: The Comforter (the Spirit of Truth) is not a single being, but the Combined Power of God acting through Perfected Spirits and agents who have Entirely Surrendered Their Wills to the Divine.

Reason vs. Faith: Reason is a Divine Gift, but it cannot independently find God. Faith is the True Evidence of things unseen, required to bypass the limitations of the mortal Mind.

The Sacrifice of Free-Will: God gave man Free-Will not for his destruction, but so that man might voluntarily surrender it. The Only Path to Eternal Salvation and becoming a joint-heir with Christ is to Completely Sacrifice One's Own Desires, Opinions, and Free-Will upon the altar of God's Will.
